“ What a blessing this lady was to our family and always will be. She is now a guardian angel over us all from heaven. My aunt Alice was my oldest aunt and she loved angels so much just like me and what a blessing it was to spend a couple days with her and family back early Dec 2019 while on a trip to see family out of town. Just getting to talk to her about her life and hear stories about my mom and other family members when they were children made us all have a few good laughs. I also learned that me and aunt Alice had so many things in common while on that trip and I will always hold those special memories in my heart forever. Aunt Allie is what most of us called her by a nickname my daughter as a toddler gave her when she couldn't say Alice. We will all love and miss her so much and hope that God gave her the most beautiful angel wings just as beautiful as the Angels she and I both thought were so beautiful. We love you always Aunt Alice! Love your Niece Amanda Smith and Great Niece Megan White
