I'm Ed Fleming's daughter and I would just like to say that I'm sorry that the four of his kids can not be there for Aunt Alice's funeral. My sister Lona and I took Dad to see Aunt Alice in Oct. Aunt Alice thanked me several times for bringing him to see her. She sounded like she knew it would be the last time.

Dad isn't able to drive that far and none of us live there.

Just a fond memory of Aunt Alice. When she lived with us in Michigan and I was a young girl, we had a contest in my Girl Scout's to see who's nails could improve the most in a week. Well, Aunt Alice was always doing her nails, so she fixed me right up. I won first place. Two weeks later, she was all over me because they looked as bad as they did before she gave me the manicure. We all love Aunt Alice and will miss her.

“ about aunt Alice
The first time she met me we stayed at her house, she told my husband Tim that I was so friendly that I could make friends at A arab convention. the next morning she made biscuits and gravy and I said yes home made biscuits and aunt Alice said oh no honey, I have not made home made biscuits since they started selling them in cans, and we all laugh.

My mom and Alice were good friends, I loved going to her house. I'll always remember Alice as a giving, loving and happy. She always had a funny story to tell. I'll never forget the time she "secretly" paid for my 8th grade school trip and got so mad when they told who paid for it. Me and Bridget was so happy though, because we could go together on it, that she couldn't help but laugh and be excited with us. I loved reading her poetry and always hearing her sing. she will be greatly missed and my heart goes out to all of children and grandchildren.

I remember Aunt Alice as someone who loved to write poetry and sing. She had a wonderful sense of humor and always made me laugh when we visited. She cared about others. I remember her killing a chicken and cooking it for us when we were kids. There is a celebration in Heaven for her today. We are praying for the family who will miss her greatly.

“ I am Alice's sister Pearl. We were very close and have kept in touch all through the years. She was beautiful, loving and sweet. She loved the Lord and attended church regularly. She was a hard worker and even did her yard work -mowing, trimming and all. I will miss her but I know she's in Heaven with Jesus and I can see her smiling.
