“ I met “uncle Amos” for the first time when my grandmother Barbara Little passed way. I came to Pikeville with my father Adam Eugene Little to lay his mother to rest. Our first stop when reaching Pikeville was Amos’s, where we enjoyed some moonshine and a golf cart ride around his house. My dad wads very fond of him. RIP Amos “ Amos was our good friend and Village Street neighbor. He repaired our lawn mowers, brought us tomatoes from his summer garden, and mowed our grass when we were unable to do so. He was a veteran who loved his family, his country, and the American flag. He will be missed by those who were blessed to know him.

“ Amos was a man strong of character. He was a good friend, neighbor and patriot. He called it like he saw it. You didn't have to guess where he stood on things. Certainly the world is a lesser place for losing him. Our hearts are sad at his passing. Tim, Shanna and Lexi Lavender
