“ You were one of the best. I have so many memories of laughing and talking with you. You came to me on the day that my son passed away and spent a long time trying to comfort me. That was the kind of friend you were. Fly high my friend. You will surely be missed. I loved you.

“ Rest in Heaven Barbara Jo, surrounded by loved ones and especially your dear Mother. I'll cherish my many memories of our time together, from the early years when I stayed with you while on vacation, our late night slumber parties, our trips to the breaks with family, and taking walks through the railroad bridge tunnel to the nearby store for sweet treats. to the later years when you were always a welcoming smile and hug greeting my children and grandchildren into your home. You were an amazing person, a joy to be around with your infectious laugh and your spirit for life. It will never be the same, you and Aunt Jo no longer here to welcome us in. I'll cherish my memories and rest knowing you are reunited with your sweet mother, and my precious momma in heaven. I love you Barb, thank you for the many memories. your cousin,

“ Coming down to Ky to see our family, will never be the same. Our first stop was always Aunt Jo's and Barb was either there or would be shortly thereafter. I will miss our texts and phone calls so very much. I love you. You were truly one of the most humble, loving, giving women I ever knew. You will be so greatly missed. Until I see you again. RIH 💜
