“ I thank God for choosing my Daddy for me and blessing me to have him for 40 years. He made countless sacrifices for me over the years. He was a great provider for our family. I'll always be a proud coal miner's daughter. Most of all, I'm thankful that he raised me in a Christian home. Daddy just didn't talk the talk, he walked the walk. I woke up many early mornings over the years to find him at the kitchen table reading his Bible. He was good to everyone, even those that didn't deserve it. He taught me so much and he's always made me want to be a better person. He was always there for me and loved me unconditionally. He rarely ever corrected me when I was wrong but I'm sure he prayed for me. I know his prayers have brought me many blessings and carried me this far. My heart is broke and I'm gonna miss him as long as I breathe. No words can express how much I love him and all he meant to me. But, I have great comfort and peace knowing that I'll see him again. He fought the good fight, he finished the race, and through it all he kept his faith.
