Lisa, Jerica, and Jerry Lynn, I am hoping you find comfort in your memories and each other. I'm sure there are no words to describe what this family is going through. I came by the day of the funeral. I watched the procession and by the number of cars that followed showed he was well liked. I hope as a community we can up lift this family long after this day. I Pray for these young friends that God will guide them and comfort them as they grieve.
