“ When I was a little girl, my brother and I got to spend a whole week at Granny’s place on Beefhide Creek. We were considered “city kids” because we lived in Jenkins. Brenda, Judy & Beulah were all at home then (before Brenda met Demosey). We would catch lightning bugs in the front yard and run back and forth on the boardwalks they used to have. The 2-seater outhouse fascinated us too. Eventually we took a bath in a galvanized tub (I’m pretty sure it doubled as a tub to water the horses). Brenda was in charge of that too and we played in the creek, in the barn loft and made mud pies until we had “sweat necklaces.” Those were the days! My mom (Brenda’s oldest sister Lunah Mae) had put my hair in a ponytail and Brenda wanted to redo my hair. I protested “Mommy fixed my hair before I came!” Yes,” Brenda said with a laugh and a smile, but that was 3 days ago!” Then there was giggling and story telling in a big feather bed until we all fell asleep. You can’t buy wonderful memories like these! There is a GRAND reunion going on in Heaven right now. Brenda isn’t missing anything. They are still doing hugs & howdies, swapping stories....and laughing.....with all those they knew & loved who went on before. They haven’t had time to notice that the rest of us are not there.....yet.

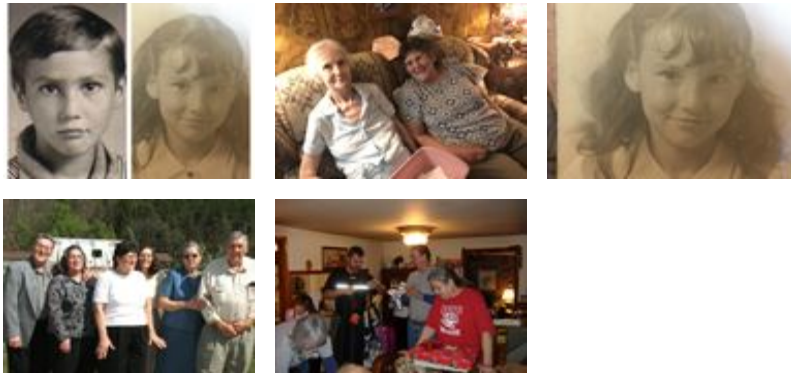

Rejoice for the memories we have. Be happy for the joy, peace and zero stress each of them has. I feel so blessed to have so many wonderful memories of Brenda. I’m going to have to confess she was always my favorite Aunt. ❤️❤️

This is our promise of Eternal Life....when we know Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, we have assurance that some day we will be reunited in Heaven. This I firmly believe.

“ She was a beautiful inside & out. I will miss our nightly talks & weekly visits. I already have since she became sick. I was so afraid of going around her & causing her to get sick with virus, cold, or flu. Besides me being selfish & didn't want to see her sick. She was always there for me when i needed to talk. She's special to me. Love her. Continued prayers for everyone.

“ So sorry to hear about the loss of a true angel. Brenda brought a smile to everyone's face that she encountered. My Dad loved her and she loved him. She was true blue and had a heart as good as gold. Her memory will live on fondly and we all are better for the example that she set. She was proud of her children and grandchildren and was lucky for their love. Prayers to those left to mourn her loss. I will always think of Brenda when the Wildcats are on.

Love, Hugs, and Prayers to all family and friends.
