“ *Ron,
So sorry to hear of the passing of your dad.
When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange.
Hold on to your memories, and let them guide you in this time of sadness.*

“ I have read the previous posts and they say so much but also don't scratch the surface as to what he really meant to our family and our community. His life blessed us who were fortunate to share him and God will continue to use him more than ever now that we can truly see the race he ran and to reflect on what really matters within the space of time we are allotted here on Earth. I look so forward to seeing you, Aunt Eula, Mamaw Mae and Papaw Clyde again. Like Chris and I were talking late last night in the parking lot of the church, we are so honored to be members of this family and we are thankful to have been raised with such loving, Godly people to show us the Way. Now enjoy your rewards good buddy. I rejoice for you.

“ So sorry to hear of Burl's passing, but I know he is in a better place. Burl was a family friend for my entire life and I fondly remember my conversations with him during my visits back to Virgie. The community has lost one of it's greatest assets.
