“ One of my favorite memories with you. When we took our longest road trip. Ha! We laughed so hard and had such a great time talking and just stopping at thrift stores. There are so many memories with you and I can't wait to see you again! I miss and love you paw.

“ Bro Butler was a wonderful brother in Christ. I enjoyed traveling with him when I was first saved and attended Bethel FWB. He is far better off than being back in this ole world. I am very happy for Bro Butler, I rejoice for him but I pray for his family and friends because I know firsthand the hurt and heartbreak this is causing. I am thankful I had the opportunity to know and appreciate Bro Butler.

“ Often wondered about Butler. He bricked our house in the eighties. He was an expert at what did. Enjoyed our conversation each day. He gave me spiritual advice that has always stayed with me. I fixed a magic bar desert that he liked. The world has lost a good person. Heaven has gained a wonderful man. Prayers and my deepest sympathies.
