“ Since it is July 4th, I wanted to share a memory of her. On July 4 one year, approx 40 years ago, a bunch of kids were having a bottle rocket war from her deck over to my grandparents deck. In which one of the kids was her husband, but my uncle. Aunt Carol kept telling him and I to stop shooting the rockets over, somebody was going to get hurt. Of course, we didn't listen. Then all of a sudden, Aunt Carol began to scream. I looked and Uncle Bert had a bottle rocket stuck to his jacket and it was melting. Oh gosh, she was mad and made my uncle and I come inside and literally sit on the couch. She even gave us a lecture how dangerous that was. When you remember a story 40 years ago, it had to be a good one. I know I had a great time. Love Always
I'll miss you Aunt Carol
