“ Where would I start with memories... The first time I heard you speak was such gentleness. We became great talking buddies on the phone and while you showed me how to work on the cars you loved so much. When you said you know everyone wants you to have a boy but a little girl to hold onto my shirttail with me working on my cars would make me so happy. And my Carrie would have been the one to follow you as would little Anavey. I am so happy Chuckie got to spend time with you, he loves you so much. I think you have taught him more than you know. I wish I could turn clocks back and see you again. I never got to fish with you... Look down and let's have our next talk about that. John and many more will be waiting with open arms for you. Chuckie will take good care of Mom Mom Georgie for you. Fly peacefully, Angel.
