“ I will always remember riding in the car to Kentucky going to Uncle Charlie's and Berry Dawns house. Staying the for a few days and he always had some summer sausage and his big stereo that helped about 100 CD's and he always played the good music, especially Kid Rock. Uncle Charlie has always been one of my favorite people, he even let me into his home after i got out of high school and wantedti move awayfir a while. He was there for my very first tattoo. I'll never forget how awesome Uncle Charlie was. Rest in paradise old man, i love you and you'll never be forgotten

“ He came down to Tennessee for a visit once while I was repossessing cars so I took him with me. It was late, the car I was looking for was a good hour drive away. We found it, I starting driving the repo and Charlie was driving my truck. Turns out, the car had a hole in the gas tank so every time it ran out of gas, Charlie would pull up behind me in my truck, jump out and out gas in the car, and we'd take off again. It took us a ling time to get back but it was a laugh every time we saw each other after that. I sure am gonna miss ol Charlie. Rest easy my friend

“ He was the funniest old timer lol. I used to always make fun of him cuz his arms weren't long enough to hold anything out to read, then I ended up with bifocals before he did! You can bet, he got the last laugh! He was always there for my daddy, he was there for the whole family when Dad passed. Charlie was the best brother in-law you could have, he is sorely missed
