Conley, some people come into our lives and touch our heart. Others come into our lives and leave foot prints on our heart. Thanks for the foot prints. I will miss you. I only knew you for a short time, however I know I will miss you for the rest of my life. Love & Recovery, Alf

“Daddy today is gonna be the hardest day of my life. How Im gonna live without you, Ill never know. I love at Katie and Kristie and myself and all I see is you. Your memory will live on through us girls. I love you so much. And no matter anyone says or does they can never take away the love and memories I have in my heart. I know me and you had our bad times but what father and daughter dont. But I know no matter you still loved me unconditionally. I LOVE YOU DADDY. Knowing that your in Heaven with Mamaw and Papaw gives me a lil peace of mind. But I still needed you here. But God only takes the best and when he took you, He took the best man that ever lived in my book. I LOVE YOU SWEET ANGEL. May you rest in peace Daddy.

“ My favorite memories of my dad were all of the memories that I had of him. He was my one hero, who always supported me in anything I did. He made me who I am and he taught me so much about how I should live my life. Without him I wouldn't have had the strength to accomplish many of the things I did in life, but he gave me that strength. No one could understand what he meant to me and how much I'm going to miss his laughter and his jokes. I love you, daddy.

He talked alot about how proud he was of you going on to school Kristie. I hope you use that strength you got from him to make a good life for yourself. That would make him so happy. I was looking at the pics of you and him on facebook, made me laugh and cry at the same time. Theres no doubt, you have that same "something" about you that he had.

“ My favorite memories of Conley are of Conley and Stefanie. The most giving and helpful true friends anyone could ever have. Everyone knows what a cut-up Conley always was. I will miss how he made us laugh. And Stefanie was always right there by his side. He never cared to tell anyone just how much he loved her. I guess that's actually my favorite memory of Conley, seeing how much he cared for her, and her for him.
