“ So sorry to hear of the passing of DeeDee, I worked with her at the Highway Department in Pikeville, KY. She was a delightful lady, loved her daughter Telisha so much & her mother & sister too! She loved her family, especially her grandchildren! We always had fun conversations at work! Will be praying for all the family!

“ My beautiful sissy will never know how much she really meant to me or how much I am gonna miss her. Life will never be the same without you with me. You’ve always been here more like a mom than anything. You looked out for me since I was little and took me with you even when you didn’t want to and I’ll always cherish our memories and all of our secrets and You will live on Forever as long as I’m Alive because my Love for you is Eternal. I’ll see you someday on the other side, please tell mamaw & papaw how much I love & miss them. I know daddy, bubby Eddie and them will be waiting for you to reunite with them in Heaven. And please let mamaw know that all those prayers she said for me wasn’t wasted that she’d be proud to know how I am today. Love you sissy Forever and Always
