“ So sorry to hear of the loss of this beautiful lady. For years when I was a young girl, she was like a second mother to me. I learned so many things from my time with the whole family because I was there every chance I got. If I couldn't stay with them, then Georgetta and Diane were at my house. It was an amazing childhood with wonderful friends like these. I love and cherish those memories and this family. You are in my heart and my prayers always. Wish I could be there.
