Imagine to my surprise, Dorothy Jane Hall to see that after your first attempt at a pitty post on my Grandfather's obituary that you dared to make a second one. It must be a sad life to hold onto something after 46 yrs after the issue was resolved (i.e. dismissed) that you felt the need to show what an inconsiderate and craven human you are daring to post on this obituary.

Wow! Imagine my surprise you called it a pity post. I met with Cotton years ago. We sat and talkes for hours. What happened the night my mom died was an accident. My mother and my mothers family were close to Cotton. Cotton was my uncles best friend amd my mom's lover.

You have an issue. Call me if you want to hear more. 502-693-0095.
