“ I met Shortie back in 2007 at the skate park that used to be at bob amos park. I was on my first date with her friend & she welcomed me straight into their group immediately. I spent the summer of 07 with her nearly every night as we hung out in town, riding around blasting music, setting in the riverfill parking lot drawing on the concrete with chalk, or going to Walmart at 3am for no reason at all. All these years later after losing touch, we ended up with brothers & she told my husband to bring me over asap so we could catch up. I put it off too long and now it's too late & I pray she knows I'm sorry for that. I regret not making the time to spend with her.

Shortis- sis,

Even tho we lost touch for many years, I hope you know I never stopped loving you. You'll always be the one person I think of and smile when I look back on the summer of 07.

Save a seat for me up there, I'll be there in a little while. Love you girl.
