Eve was a wonderful lady. I am so sorry for the family's loss. I loved Eve very much. Hadnt seen her in a while, but always asked Theresa about her. She is in my prayers, and in my memories forever. GOD bless you all.

“ Once when Eve and I worked a late shift together, I was in a lot of pain (neck) from a motorcycle accident and decided to go to the emergency room after the shift was over, Eve would not let me go alone. She went with me and stayed with me and drove me home after they gave me powerful pain medication. And of course, she stopped by every day to check on me. This was Eve... always helping others, no matter what they needed.

“Eve was a wonderful friend for many years. She was also my neighbor and I was devastated when she passed. It literally made me sick for two nights but this morning I was talking to my sister and I got to remembering funny things about Eve that she had shared with me so many times. Stories of her past that she could tell with such wonderful humor even though they were not the best of times. Eve was one of those people who gave so very much more than she ever received in life. We would talk long hours into the night on the phone and at both our houses. She always depended on me to keep her dogs for her and knowing how very much she loved The Fonzie and the newest dog I got for her Jazz, I felt it an honor that I was the one she trusted them with. She will always have a special place in my heart. The last words I said to her was Eve you are going to live until God gets through with you then he's going to come take you home to be with him. In a real quiet voice she replied, Thank you for saying that. Then I told her I loved her. She was special.

“I worked with Eve for many years and she was always so kind. When my girls were little she embroidered their names on some Disney throws and we told them they were embroidered by Mrs. Claus, not long before our job ended she asked me about the throws and I told her the girls still had them, which made her smile.

“ Eve will forever be in my heart. We had so many wonderful nights sharing pictures and thoughts of our families. I feel as if I know you all. She loved all you guys and you gave her motivation to keep going! I know she is in Heaven with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We talked a lot about him too! He kept us both going when times got ruff. I know she will be waiting for you all in Heaven! I'm so sorry for your loss and I will be praying for you all! Elizabeth Culbertson
