“ I am very sorry to hear of Floyd's passing. I pray for his family, especially for his children and brothers. I will always remember Floyd pulling pranks and stuff when I was around him. He always got the best laugh out of the deal. Rest in Peace cousin.

“ Praying for all of the family. When I last talked to Floyd, he told me he was ready to meet his Saviour; and I believe he was. My fondest memories are the good times we had growing up together along with our other cousins. I may not be able to come to the funeral but will be praying for all those who can make it. I love you all.

“ It really hurt me when I got the news of my friend, my neighbor's passing. I've watched and seen the changes in Floyd over the years, for the better, he loved to sit outside on his porch and I'd stop and chat every time I'd pass by, or he'd come up to the house for a cold soda, and we'd chat for awhile,Lloyd always called him Charlie, and his name for Lloyd was Kale,He'd always call and check on us if either of us was sick,best of all, Floyd was ready to meet the Lord,so Floyd, I'll see ya later my friend
