“ She was the best! Growing up, she was so welcoming, thoughtful, kind and fun to be around. I loved how she would answer ANY question you asked her, when we were having late night talks when I was staying the night with Teddy. I remember endless card games, like playing Peanuts when you were sure you were going to get your hand slapped, scratched or bruised! She also made the best Kool-Aid and lasagna ever. I always appreciated how real, transparent and authentic she was. She was herself 24/7. She was always accepting, loving and a great listener. I'm so grateful to have had my life impacted by her!
