“ Stick ran many peices of equipment on several different strip jobs that I used to haul from. He was a cousin and a friend. He was a good man and will be missed. He knew me as Uncle Buck when I drove for DT Trucking and BWB Trucking.

*To Freddie's Family , I am heartbroken over the passing of my dear friend . May God hold you extra close as you go through this heartbreaking time . I hope you find comfort in all the memories you have made through the years .
Freddie always called me on my birthday and those are precious memories for me . Freddie and I talked frequently and I sure will miss the conversations and laughs we shared together . Marilyn Potter
