“ My mamaw and papaw were my world. They practically raised me. I was very close to my papaw. When I found out I was pregnant with my first child I was scared to death to tell my mamaw. Even though I was married. I called and I told my papaw first. He was tickled to death. I went to papaw with everything in my life. If I needed an answer to something he would tell me. He was always there for me. And so was my mamaw. I never got a spanking from my papaw if mamaw tried to I would jump in his lap and he wouldn't let her. He was my Procter. I feel like the other half of my heart has died. But this only gives me a better reason to get my life straight and live for the Lord cause I want to see my mamaw and papaw one day. I want to see them together again and see how happy they are again. I love and miss you both more than I can put in words. My heart is truly broken.
