“ I have many good memories of my Uncle Cotton. He, and my Uncle Morse, always treated me like one of their own whenever I visited. I loved that Uncle Cotton was a "free spirit". I was extremely shy when I was younger but spending time with him helped bring me "out of my shell". I always loved him but we didn't speak the last few years. I'm sorry for that Uncle. I love you and hope to see you again someday, when my! work is done.
