“ Not only was Herman a Veteran Hero he was a Hero in our families eyes
My mom loved when they would come to visit and she would set and pinch on Herman's finger
We are gonna miss seeing that sweet face on holidays now but just knowing you no longer struggle to breathe and are in Gods Hands that's all I need
You all will always be family
Rest high on that Mountain Herman your struggles are thru

I was deeply saddened when I found out I had lost a family member. Herman has been one of us for 23 years. He was like a brother. In our blood family, as well as our Spiritual Family at the Virgie Church of Christ. He and Ann were closer than any couple I have ever seen. If either ever raised their voice to the other it was never heard of or known. Both had been married before, but this was a marriage for the rest of time. Nothing and no one could come between them.
