“ My big brother- I wish I had known my last visit with you would have been my last . You gave me a home when I was young and never asked for anything. You had a big heart . I would have told you how much I love you and will miss you . You will always be my bubby. May you play your guitar and sing with the angels. I love you Rod.

My big brother Rod- I can't believe I sat and talked with you not a minth ago . Had I known this would be our last conversation I would have told you how much I love you and appreciated the home you gave me when I was young and neede one . Nothing was asked in return. I love you and will miss your corny name calling. Love you Kat
