“ She was like a mother to me!!! All of my younger years is memories of her and my teenage years... No one in this world will ever be a better cook than her!!! I have too many memories that will always put smiles on my face and tears in my eyes to know that she is gone!! I'll never get to hug her again or tell her how grateful I am for being there for me. But I know that I have the best guardian angel in this world along with my grandmother and daughter...
