“ You will always be loved and missed boots! It's so hard for me to realize that just not to long ago I had all my uncles around to talk to but now dohave any!! Only God knows why he took you guys so close together but it has truly been so hard on me. I don't like to show it but I know you guys can here me talk to you so I know yall know. Jerry I sure do miss the times we would cut up and joke. What I wouldn't give to be able to do that just one more time! I truly miss u buddy and can't wait to see ya again. I love ya

“ I only became truly acquainted with Jerry two years ago by way of a long phone conversation. I am his first cousin. His mother was my dad's sister. He was so nice and funny. It felt like we had always known each other. I loved knowing I had a friend and cousin a phone call away. I hope to see him in the resurrection. Much love and condolences to my cousins and family for your overwhelming loss.
