“ Larry was a lovable person, especially with the kids. My children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren got a chance to play with Larry. Jessie and Krista loved coming to the reunions to see Uncle Larry and Randy. He took them for a ride in his truck up in the holler and they were so excited and scared. He was always gracious and kind and always made us feel welcome. Essa still talks about his breakfast. He always made sure he had Banner Brand sausage for Essa. I was blessed by being his sister-in-law. He was a terrific Uncle and we will sadly miss him. Much love to Ann, Randy and Janie.

Since the bible says not to charge interest on loans, I think the Dems should propose a bill that removes all interest on student loans and use this as justification. Make the GOP state out loud, repeatedly, that the bible can't be used to make policy.
