“ It would take a book to share precious memories of this man, who became my Bubby very quickly . Bub, I’m so thankful for the bond we had and that of you and Dakota. I’m thankful that you called on me and had trust in me. What I was blessed to do for you was from a pure heart, you knew that, so finally you quit arguing with me 😊 I will never ever forget the talks, laughter and bear tracking that we done, that ole bear, at least it entertained us. I will always be Ratchet-Jaw to you and you will always be Hateful Thang to me 😊 Thanks for the love you gave to Dakota and for taking him hunting his first and only time, he truly loved you, pranking you dressing as Santa, coming to you asking questions about life, then coming to your bedside to ask what could he do. Above all thanks so much for becoming the brother, friend and neighbor that you were. Bubby, I promised you I would always be there for Connie and I will . Our hearts will always be broken, you will never be forgotten so join Glenn and rest easy, bub, Dakota and I love you 💕💕

“ I grew up around this man and he was always good to me, helped me work on my car multiple times, and he treated my kids like they was his own grandkids when they was around. I remember when Larry got his dog ruby me and him bathed her in a old bath tub sitting beside his garage, I'll never forget that
