“ Deepest sympathies to all who knew and loved Leisa especially Flem Jr, Bonnie, and Jodi. Leisa has always been a dear friend. I have so many wonderful memories of her. We had a path in the hill to go between our houses, we thought that way was faster. We did everything together in our younger years. Mom accused me of wanting glasses because I loved the dog Leisa had on hers. I will always cherish my memories of you. Fly high with the angels now.

“ $200. Alex! I can't believe that I'm trying to think of what to say for your obituary wall. No this can't be true. This is devastating. You always fell asleep before 12am to go spy at the ATM. We had an amazing time together. I'm so grateful I got to spend my holidays with you. You always said "We are family" now what do I do? I wish we would've done the family Christmas card. You're absolutely Gorgeous. You're now with your Granny and Benny's mom (forgot her name) and Carter. I'm going to pretend you just in Florida. Maybe it won't be hurt so much. We would talk for hours on the phone when we weren't together. Thank you for everything. I hated your scary movies. The last Halloween was good. I could talk to you forever. Remember at McDonald's talking about Peanut butter. That young kid dropped his fry. I wish I could of had a lifetime to make more memories with you. We had our future planned out. Even down to chemical peels this month in Hazard. I always hung up before you could say Goodbye. I'm hanging up but I will you you when my time on Earth is though. So much we wanted to do. Pablo was the most amazing Dog to ever exist. I wish I could hug you. I'm glad you were born and I got to meet you. Long live Rock'in Red and Ole Bessie

Sorry for the grammar mistakes, I had tears in my eyes. Plus I never proof read. Lol you would read text after I had sent them. Then read them back to me with the mistakes. That was so funny. You would say "I can't believe you sent that! Let me proof read before you send anything again."
