“ The years have flown by, I mistakenly took everyday and every moment for granted believing i wouldnt see this day. Now I sit here remembering all the wonderful memories of you and the thousands of smiles you put on my face. Not just me though everyone you met. You could met some one once and they knew you the rest of their life. You were such a remarkable woman grandma and you will forever be loved and missed deeply. Your bench legs will be with you one day. I LOVE YOU GRANDMA!

“ I will always remember how she would visit me at Virgie High School and we would go to Hamilton's 5 & 10. We would get a snack, usually pop and candy bar, I was still young at that time. It was special to me. Once she bought me a doll and doll clothes because some of the other kids were bragging in front of me. She looked at them and said, "she will have the best when we come back and she will not share with you. That is what being selfish gets you." At the time, I was proud just because she defended me and did something special for me. Later, as I got older I realized we had made special memories that would last a life time. We always talked about those special times when I would see her. She is in a better place now and no more suffering. Hopefully, the family will find comfort in the fact that she was loved. R.I.P. Till everyone is back together in heaven.

“ I will miss you Aunt Lorena. You were there with me and my Janice beside momma when she died. I am sorry I was not there with you. Growing up I was a little jealous of you. I love you. Say hello to momma, grandma, and my Janice. You will not be forgotten. We Remember. Family is.
