“ Boots was a special lady who always welcomed everyone into her home. She treated my boys as she did her grandsons when they were little and they loved spending time with her with them. I know she will be sorely missed by all who loved her. Continued prayers for the family. We love all of you!

"Boots" was my first cousin. Her dad was Willis Burke, my uncle, on my dad's side. We spent many afternoons , waiting for the mail, and talking and laughing. Boots was a very pleasant person.
