“ I remember mom was on the phone asking him what he wanted on his hotdog and then he just stopped talking out of nowhere so she turned on her emergency lights and we went to papaw and mams and 2 people followed us up there and we got there and the phone was ringing on his chest and turns out he had fell asleep and we woke him up and he said did you get my hotdog 😊

“ I didn't get to spend as much time with Craig as I wanted or wished I could have. I remember one summer he and I spent most days at mom's house playing Rook. We had so much fun everyday playing even if he would say you were cheating no matter what you were doing lol. I like to remember the good times we had and the memories we made. We would go out to eat after he had his motorcycle wreck even though his jaws were wired shut he would still eat as much or more than the rest of us. I love you brother and you fought a long hard battle but never let it get you down. You were and will always be our Superman. I love you

Tuana Bentley - July 20, 2017 at 12:37 PM

“ My husband was the strongest man I know; he fought this battle with a smile on his face and a positive attitude. He said that he was going to live until he died and that's exactly what he did. Let his life and struggle be a testimony to you, when life gets you down and out just stay strong like our Superman and push on. God blessed me to spend 31 wonderful years with him and more memories than you can imagine. His suffering is over and now mine has begun; to go through this life without him is going to be the hardest thing I've done, but his Wonderful Woman will continue to stay strong for her Superman until we meet again. I will forever love you my precious hubby

“ My heart is saddened to hear the loss of Craig. To Tondra and the entire family of Craig Blevins. I can never fully imagine how difficult it is for all of you to carry such burden of losing a wonderful man and friend like Craig. He always brought life into a room or anywhere he went. He was loved by everybody. Please accept my deepest condolences as you mourn the loss of a Man, Husband, Father, and friend like Craig was. Heaven gained a superman and an angel for he is now watching over those who were near and dear to his heart.

You will be greatly, greatly missed just like you were loved. I will always miss your smile and what a great father you were. I still can remember you bringing Chandra to headstart in the morning I realized more about you in those days than I did when we were in school. I remember thinking the first time I saw you bring her to school, I would never had guessed back in the day how much of a wonderful loving father you had become but when we were in school we didn't even think about having children. My friend go rest high on that mountain top till we meet again. Love you always. Karen Smallwood White
