Smiley. I'm glad that you ask Angie where I was when you came Trick or Treating at the house. I came out and we had a good little conversation. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ Nathan Stevens was my Brother and he was a huge part of my life we got along well, he was a wonderful person, strong headed, stubborn, and a all around good person. Loved to hang out with family and friends. Celebrate holidays and birthdays was something he cherished and took to heart. He always wanted the best for his Family. Many people knew my brother but not quite like his family and close friends, four wheeling and camp clothing was his deal. He loved to ride in the Hills and show his son what having fun and living life was. He was a very serious and good hearted person, would give u anything he could even if he didn't have for himself he would help. His youngest son loves to play Xbox and his daddy was his playing buddy anytime u seen Nathan u seen Elijah. He loved his family yes he made mistakes as we all do.... I love my brother and miss him so much I think of u everyday of my life mostly every second. I wish I could turn back time. I remember when I was a lil girl and we played hide and seek with our other brother Brandon u hid me on top of the house and Brandon never did find me until I scared him by acting like I was gonna jump off. Lol I know u are still here around me and ur sons just wish I could see u.
