“ I’ve known Nathon since I was about 8 years old maybe younger since they was on high street we also went same school Pikeville together .Then everyone moved off high street I didn’t see them for awhile until we was both all grown up married with kids, but we picked right back up being friends again. Then since 2015 him his wife kids I’ve had pleasure them being my neighbors and honestly they’re more like family then friends and it hurts my heart to see trista kids hurting so bad. I just pray for peace and comfort for his wife and kids and it bothers me knowing how hard they’re taking. I couldn’t imagine what pain their feeling right now. Nate buddy I promise to try help them anyway I can be there for them I hope you rest in peace you’ve always been like family to me you are definitely going to be missed going be weird not seeing you going down Sugar Camp anymore.
