“ MY AUNT MARIE:

She made homemade hard candy that was the greatest. She coated it with confectioner's sugar and gave it to all of us kids on Home Creek. Woe to those parents when those kids went home. Pans and bowls were all over her kitchen; but, she laid it all out for all of us.

She had so many kids running through her house most of the time. All you left hand fork people may remember. BUT, when it came time for her soap operas, it was her time.

She had a wonderful ability to let us be kids and not intervene unless it was quiet serious. She had few rules; however, the ones she had was a SERIOUS thing and we all knew that.

She gave all of us kids a true love. It wasn't all about organization and keeping things right up to par. But, she gave us all love. She allowed us freedom, to a point, and was so tolerant of all of us. She allowed us kids to be equal and together in a way that only she could do.

I remember those days and wonder if any kids have that opportunity now.

I had asked her to teach me how to make that hard candy. She bought what she needed. And I didn't make it there in time. BUT, I will make this candy with her some day.

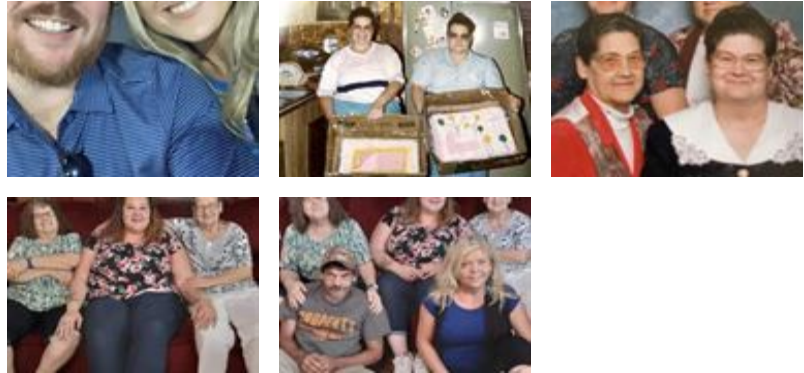

I will miss her so much.

“ My Papaw Clyde's sister. I loved Aunt Marie and the last time I spoke with her we were shopping and I carried her bags of groceries out to her car in the pouring rain. She was always very sweet to me and I am so sorry to hear of her passing.
