“ Aunt Pauline's and Uncle Clell's was always so much fun. On our visits from Michigan, my favorite memory was a tablecloth that she had everyone that visited her house to sign. In the morning we had Chocolate gravy and biscuits while we read all the names. As an adult I took my son for a visit, and he fell in love with the apple butter she had canned. Love, Marcia (Hampton, daughter of Leo, she called him Deo), Wayne and Brandon Anderson

“ I will never forget my trips to Kentucky. Aunt Pauline welcomed me and my children each and every time. I missed my trips down south. The chocolate gravy, the warm embraces, and the love for her family. I will pray for all she will surely be missed. Diana Hampton

“ Pauline always looked glamorous with her beautiful smile. She always welcomed my family and I into her home with open arms. One memory of her I will never forget was going to her yard sale. She said to me " Just take it, I am not worried about the money." Her heart was as big and kind as her smile!!!! She had a beautiful singing voice as well!!!! Avis, Sherry and all your family, May God bless you all through such a difficult time!!!! You all are in my heart and prayers!!!! Much love to u all!!!!!! Hugs and kisses!!!!!! Fly high Pauline with your new wings and tell Mom and Lelar I love and miss them both bunches!!!! Heaven gained yet another beautiful Angel!!!!

“ Pauline has been my second mom for at least 45 years of my life. My mom always knew where I was down on the hill with Glenda. I will miss this wonderful sweet lady so much. It's so hard to let them go physically but mentally we know they are with the loves of their lives and sharing their love and their new life with our Savior. Another Angel can now spread her wings she has earned them Glenda, Sherri and Tena I want be able to be there but I send my love and my prayers to you all. I can just see that smile no big and little Jeht will miss Mimi we just mailed her card the day before we found this out for her upcoming birthday. We love you all. Debbie & Doc Sevierville TN

“ FRANKIE TACKETT LIT A CANDLE IN MEMORY OF PAULINE TACKETT. ONE OF THE FEW PEOPLE THAT CAN LITE UP A ROOM WITH HER SMILE NO MATTER HOW BAD SHE FELT SHE ALWAYS KEEP THAT SMILE. PAULINE YOU HAVE EARNED YOUR WINGS SO FLY HIGH WITH THE ANGELS TO MEET THE ONE PERSON THAT YOU HAVE ALWAYS WANTED TO BE WITH YOUR BELOVED CLELL. I WILL ALWAYS MISS THAT SMILE AND THE HAPPINESS THAT YOU ALWAYS SHOWED TO EVERYONE
