“ *Three years have come and gone, but the pain remains. It is such a deep sadness...an emptiness. I have so many regrets. Lessons learned the hard way. I hope I never have to stand next to another grave with unspoken words. Your heart was so big and so sincere. I know it brought you a lot of pain, but it never changed you. You kept loving. We all can learn from that. I would love just to see your smile and hear you laugh again.
You are forever loved and always missed.*

“ Hey Bobo.
I just had you on my mind. I was thinking about how we used to go to the lake and go fishing every weekend. A lot of my friends have Rottweilers and I always think of you when I tell them I used to have so many when I was little. I always tell them about Duke and Midnight and how we had them for so long. Everytime I pass the fish section in Walmart I always think of how we'd go to Walmart late at night all the time just to buy fish. Haha. I have so many good memories of and with you. I miss you so much. I really miss you calling me to tell me how much you loved me, but don't worry. Everyone who knew you always tells me how much you did, and I've never had to second guess that. I love you so much. I'll write you again soon. Rest in peace angel.

“ Happy late Christmas my angel, I hope you had a good one. You're babygirl is finally all grown up and finally 18. I missed getting your call this year, it would actually be around this time that you'd call to wish me happy birthday because you wanted to make sure that I was in Lexington. It's hard to believe it's been so long since I've gotten that call. I miss you every day, and I think about you all the time. But I'm going to come up to see you soon. I promise. Have a good new years in heaven, I love you Bobo.

“ I still think about you all the time. So many things remind me of you. I look at all these pictures and just cry. I can't believe it's been almost two years. It seems like yesterday when I heard the awful news. It still hurts me so much, then I think about what Vickie, Ronnie, Brian, and Stephanie must be going through daily. I know it has to be real hard on Mamaw, too. You lived so close to each other. The truth is you left behind many broken hearts. I hope you know how much we all love and miss you.

“ Hey.

I know I haven't been on here in a while, I hope you nor nobody else thinks I've forgotten about you. Because I haven't. I never could. I still think about you, and I really miss your random phone calls with you telling me how much you loved me and that I'd always be your baby girl. I came and visited you the Saturday after Thanksgiving. It was good to be there. I'm going to try and start coming home once a month, and when I do, I'm going to try and come to your grave, and when I get my license I'm going to drive up there for sure and visit you. I always bug mom about driving up there to come and see you, but since Ray's died, we rarely have any time. I sit and think about our little memories all the time. I don't think I could ever go fishing again without thinking of you. I remember when we would spend all day and night out on FishTrap. Haha. I had so much fun. I can't go past the funeral home without thinking of you. It's still hard to believe that you're not here. My birthday is in 19 days, can you believe your baby girl is going to be 18? I'm so excited, but it's sad I can't define myself as a kid anymore. I'm going to miss your phone call this year, just as I did last year. I remember you used to call me like a week or two after my birthday to make sure I was at home, and tell me happy birthday. You never forgot. In 19 days I would've been legally allowed to see you, I would've enjoyed that. I was thinking about Pearl Harbor earlier, I remember how we used to watch it all the time. It was my favorite movie growing up, and will always be one of my favorite memories with you. I'm graduating in May, and I plan on going to ECU if I get accepted. You would've been proud of me and how far I've come. Me and mommy are doing okay, we just take everything second by second. Every one still tells me how much you loved me, it never fails to make me smile. I know you loved me, that's something I'll never have to second guess, a day in my life. And I'll always love you. Forever and always.

“ Went to Tennessee yesterday I was going to stay a few days but the memories of you while traveling down hwy 66 upset me so that I came home. Remembering all the times I would met you driving on that road speeding, shaking my finger at you letting you know that I had seen you. Remembering that big smile on your face as you had not done anything wrong. You knew I would be mad. Pulling over to the side of the road saying something joking trying to make me forget you were spending. How I wish could wrap my arms around you and give you a big hug. Every day things change but losing you has changed our familys life forever. Rest in peace my son. We miss you so much. LOVE MOM

“ My dear son how much I miss you so. Every day I think about you, sometimes it is just the smallest thing that makes me think of you. It might be something that I my cook that you like to eat or a friend of your I may see, a memory of you when you growing up. I know that it is one of the worst thing a mother could ever have to go though it lose a child. Someone else lost a child yesterday I know the hurt they feel ,my heart hurts for that family. Most of the family and friends say every time when they hear the song DYING YOUNG that they think of you. Bubby we love and miss you so much. Love you,

“ Today is Sunday, January 15.,2012 it is a cold wintery day with a least two inches of snow that fall last night.Last year about 7;00 P.M. I recieved a phone call from the sherriffs dept of Rogersville, Tenn. saying that you had passed away.I thought that my heart was going to burst.I fell to my knees hoping that I had heard them wrong .It is the worst day of my life losing you.I have always prayed to God for him to keep all my children safe but I guess he had a reason he needed you.I just came from grave how beautiful the snow looked in the trees I was thinking that you would be so pleased to know you were resting in such a pretty place.Sometimes when I am out I see people that tell me that they knew you, They tell me things about how you had always been there for them in some way or another.BUBBY, you were a very privite person ,friends saying they could always count on you.I want you to know Bubby that you had a more love in a lifetime that anyone could ever want,You had some very hard times in life but you left this earth leaving many friends and family that respect and love you so very much .REST IN PEACE MY SWEET SON. “ Today makes one year since you've left us.. but it doesn't feel like its been that long. I promise I'll take care of mom as best as I can today, and I'll hold everything together for her. She's been sick the past week, I wish she would start feelin a little better, she seems so weak and helpless.. She misses you. I came home yesterday from the mall with my friends, I've kept today completely empty because I refuse to leave her side, but anyways. I was going to show her my new shirts, but before I had the chance to speak, she was already in tears asking me to hold her. I can't imagine what she feels right now, it would've made her birthday a lot better if she would've gotten to talk to you, actually, it would have made both of our birthdays to hear your voice. I miss your random phone calls, I miss you telling me how much you loved me and how I'd always be your angel and you baby.. and I will. No body will ever replace you. I'm going to see The Band Perry on March 3rd with Starr, I promised mommy I would record them singing If I Die Young for her. I'll never forget how mom woke me up and told me, everything changed just like that.. I feel like a part of me is missing without you here, but I know I'll be with you again one day, save me a spot. I love you Bobo.

“ Merry Christmas my love, this is really been a rough week for me, Wed. was Megan's 17th birthday, she cried cause she didn't get her phone call from you. Can you believe our baby is 17. Gosh how big she is, she has turned into a beautiful young lady, you would be so proud of her. I told her I understood, just imaging how im going to be on my birthday, that was the last time I talked to you and you left this world 5 days after. I play that conversation over and over in my head all the time. and Remember the last thing we said to each other was I love you, and I always will. I miss you so much Ronald, I miss talking to you all the time and hearing your sweet voice and hearing you laugh and telling me everything is going to be ok. I was looking at the beautiful pictures your mom had taken of your resting place, She has it looking so beautiful, She looks so sad and lost Ronald, My heart breaks for her and your family, I know this really has to be hard on them also. I talked to s Shannon Johnson yesterday on FB, We were talking on how much we missed you and he was telling me how that you had told him how much you loved me and that I was your only true love and how you wished that we could get back together, I told him that I knew that, that we had talked about that so many times and how our love for each other had never changed, I'll never love anyone the way I loved you, you were my best friend, my soul mate and the love of my life. No one will ever take your place in my heart. Well Im sorry I really need to finish wrapping these gifts, Merry Christmas my love, I love you.

“ What a sad Thanksgiving it was Bubby without you. Life is forever change. Several people visited your grave that day that makes me so happy that they are keeping your memory alive. Your Sister, Ella Fay and I went to Johnson City on black friday I was talking about you going with us on a black friday one year to best buy, how cold it was that year. Stephanie was seven months pregnant with Hayden then. We liked to freeze to death then. We stood in line for hours so we could buy a computer, then when we got to the door they said they had sold out, but once we got inside we ended up with two computers. I was just looking on facebook reading what people were posting, Kim Bartley had posted saying she would like to go away to a place with no crying and no pain I feel the same way, but life brings a lot of that. I am going to decorate your grave for xmas, I wish I could just sleep through that day. FEELING THE PAIN OF MISSING YOU THROUGH THESE HOLIDAYS that I felt you loved so much. Hoping you will walk through the door wanting to know what was there to eat. LOVE AND MISS YOU SO MUCH BUT ALWAYS REMEMBERING YOU .

“ Bubby as the holiday season is near my thoughts of you are so much more painful for me to bare.I wish I could just sleep to spring.I have been thinking about the night that you dressed as Santa and Brian and you took a picture.Everyone in our family do not like to have their pictures taken, how glad I am that you and Brian took a picture together .How special those pictures are to me .I remember telling Brian that one of these days he would be glad that he had taken the picture not knowing that it would be so soon.If we only would have known that it would be your last holiday with us how we would have said and done so much more.Having you in our life was a blessing .Our life is forever change without you.Love you and missing you so much.

“ I just heard a new song and I thought of you. I miss you and there's something that reminds me of you each and everyday. I think about all things you loved. I don't know how we all are going to get through the holidays without you. We'll never get over you.

Over You by Miranda Lambert

*Weatherman said it's gonna snow
By now I should be used to the cold
Mid-February shouldn't be so scary
It was only December, I still remember
The presents, the trees, you and me*

*But you went away
How dare you
I miss you
They say I'll be ok
But I'm not going to ever get over you*

*Living alone here in this place
I think of you and I'm not afraid
Your favorite records make me feel better
Cause you sing along with every song
I know you didn't mean to give them to me*

*But you went away
How dare you
I miss you
They say I'll be ok
But I'm not going to ever get over you*

It really sinks in, you know, when I see it in stone

*Cause you went away
How dare you
I miss you
They say I'll be ok
But I'm not going to ever get over you*

“ Hey.. It's been a while since I've been on here.. I don't write you letters like mom does, but you cross my mind every single day. Everytime I hear If I Die Young, I always say that you're thinking about us. Or when Strawberry wine comes on, I always think of how happy mommy was with you. Your mom has your resting place looking so gorgeous. I love listening to stories about you, I also listened to that song Over You by Miranda Lambert, and it brought tears to my eyes. I've give anything for a random phone call from you, just to hear your voice. It'll be weird not having a phone call from you on my birthday this year.. but I know you'll be with me. When ever I'm asked if I believe in angels or anything like that I always say I have the best guardian angel in Heaven, and it's so true. I told you happy birthday, I hope you heard me.. I've started doing stats for defense for Football, and we have playoffs tomorrow, so I'm pretty nervous.. we're not exactly good this year, haha. I'm thinking of doing stats for girls basketball, too. Mom wants me too, haha. But I have to clean my room and study for my Geometry test tomorrow, and I'll let you get back to resting. I love and miss you, so muchhhhh. <3

Megan Roberts - November 03, 2011 at 07:12 PM

“ Hi, I know that it has been awhile since I,ve been on here, but I wanted to look at the pretty pictures of how beautiful your mom has your resting place fixed. I miss you so much and its really hard for me to get on here and write how I feel, I feel this is something special for your family, So I write you letters, and I talk to you all the time, just like your with me, you just never answer back. I've had you on my mind a lot here latley, remembering old times. I finally got a new car that would of got me to Tn to see you. Its a mustang and it will fly, lol, I told Megan how that we use to race to Pikeville when we lived at Johns Creek, and how you taught me how to drive fast and race. She loves hearing stories of things we use to do and amazingly she remembers a lot more than I thought, like all of us fishing, going to Pikeville to watch fireworks her chicken lucky and all her dogs you gave her, that got hit or stolen. Its funny hearing her tell them. You would get a kick out of her. We had alot of good times together and alot of wonderful memories. Thank you so much for those and all of the wonderful things that you use to do for us, I really miss you, more than anyone knows, I'm so alone without you, you were my best friend, and knew me better than anybody, I miss you telling that you knew me better than I knew myself, I miss being able to pick up the phone and call you or Megan saying BoBo just called call him back, I try really hard to empaize and listen to music or just talk to you and try to just keep what Megan said, Mommy BoBo's with us, he's just our angel now that is with us all the time. I watched the movie hereafter the other day and I wish that I could find someone that could talk to the decease, so I could just tell you one more time, I love you and I always will,and I never stopped, just to hear you say, I know that and I'll always love you too. Just like we did on ever conversation we had. Your birthday was hard, not being able to call you, but I sung you happy birthday anyway, and thought of you all day. Now the holidays are coming up and I know how much you enjoyed them, I love you Ronald, rest in peace,

“ I really do not know what to say that I have not said a billion times and have cried buckets of tears, missing you so. I have been told that the hurt you feel will get easier as time passes. It has not been that way for me. Every day, every moment the memory of you is always on my mind. I wonder about the last few months of your life, the things we talked about telling you that you had plenty of time not really thinking about how someone you love may not be here. If I only knew, the things I would have wanted to say to you. I now live every day wondering if you knew how much you were so loved and how proud I was for you to be my son. You had a caring heart. Always when you would call to check to see how your Dad and I was doing I felt in my heart that you were worried about losing one of us. It makes you realize how to live each and every moment as it is your last day and do not be afraid to tell someone that you love them for you will never know if it may be your last chance. You always made sure you said I LOVE YOU before leaving or hanging up the phone. September 18 your birthday it was hard for me but at the last minute I wanted to have a memorial for you, 46 friends and family that came up there. We had a cookout, a poem was read, Ella Fay wrote a song especially about you and sung it, everyone that was there signed the poem and we tied it to balloons and let it go. How you enjoyed getting together. It made things a little better knowing you had not been forgotten. I did not write anything on here on your birthday because other people were thinking of you and I wanted it to be read. HAPPY BIRTHDAY MISSING YOU SO. Mommy

"How We Miss You"

*Born on the 18th of September,
God gave us a little boy.
With the big brown eyes and dimples in his cheeks,
A sweet little bundle of Joy.
His Mom and Dad's heart was filled with pride,
A happy little face and laughing eyes.
And his grandparents were so very glad,
He was the perfect little boy that they never had.*

And how we miss you,

We'll never be the same.

Our lives have been turned upside down,

And our hearts are filled with pain,

Oh, how we miss you.

*We thank God for your 38 years,
But we loved you so much we still wish you were here.
God knows best and we know this is true,
But it still doesn't keep us from missing you.
Oh how we wish we didn't have to part,
But you'll forever stay in our hearts.*

And how we miss you,

We'll never be the same.

Our lives have been turned upside down,

And our hearts are filled with pain,

Oh, how we miss you.

It was on a January evening,

When we got the sad sad news.

Your life had suddenly slipped away,

We couldn't hardly believe it was true.

Now someday up in Heaven,

We hope to see you again.

In life down here were just passing through,

God has a greater plan.

“ *Since the day the skies turned gray
It was then I thought of you
As the rain pondered upon my tin-roof
Tears from my eyes shown how much I missed you*

*It never crossed my mind that I'd feel so blue
That on that very day I'd lose a piece of you inside of me
Who would have thought It be you to leave so soon?
Leaving behind the ones you love and memories*

*I'm sure you've gone to a better place
Garnished with angel wings, Halo, Harps and other things
You're probably looking down from heaven up above
Sending out smiles with days of sunshine and showers of love*

*Not a day that goes by I don't think of you
How I wished you were still here to stay
All the fun and times we spent together
Your laughter and your smile you've always gave*

*These are moments I cherish and hold so dear
Moments spent and everlasting memories
Even though Its hard to accept the fact that you're gone
The distance between you and I are only...
Only temporarily!*

i miss you bobo </3

How can all of this be true?
I can't believe you're really gone,
I still can't accept it,
Even after so long.
Just the thought of you makes me cry,
I never even got the chance to say goodbye.
Every picture, every letter,
I don't know if it will ever get better.
I always smell your familiar scent,
It makes me think of all of the times we've spent.
So many things I never got to say,
I never imagined you'd ever be so far away.
You were my brother,
And I loved you like no other.
In my heart you'll always be,
You'll be my guide and help me see.
I'll never forget your soothing voice,
I would take your place if I had a choice.
But now I have to let you rest,
Although without you my world's a mess.
I miss you with all of my heart,
I wish we never had to part.
I know you're always by my side,
And for now I guess this is my goodbye...*

I love and miss you so much Bubby. Happy Birthday!!

“ If We Could Bring You Back Again

*If we could bring you back again,
For one more hour or day,
We'd express all our unspoken love;
We'd have countless things to say.*

*If we could bring you back again,
We'd say we treasured you,
And that your presence in our lives
Meant more than we ever knew.*

*If we could bring you back again,
To tell you what we should,
You'd know how much we miss you now,
And if we could, we would.*

“ As these days of September days begin my thoughts of you are so hard to bare the thought of you not being here for me to wish you Happy Birthday.My heart has a hole that will never be repaired.I go up the hollow where you lay but I seam to not want to believe that you are not coming home.I look at your truck and I can just see you standing beside it saying this is the GREAT ONE RIDE as you would always say.There has been several days of rain this week the water flows so peaceful though the rocks it looks like a waterfall since I have cleared the hollow ,I know in my heart that there was no better place that I could have put you.Bubby, I MISS YOU but you are always on my mind and forever in my heart . With sadness we recall,
You had a kindly word for each.
and died beloved by all.
The voice is mute, and stilled the heart
that loved us well and true.
At, bitter was the trial to part
From one so good as you.
You are not forgotten, loved one,
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we'll miss you more--
Your loving smile, your gentle face,
no one can take your vacant place."*

“ Bubby, there's not a day that goes by that I don't think about you and how much I miss you. On most days I can hold it together, but there's still those days when I think about you that I can't help but cry. There are days I reminisce about the good old days when I was growing up and the things you would do, like listening to Eddie Money's "If I Could Walk on Water" or calling Brian "B-gumbi" (which I still don't know what it means) and I smile and then in split second it turns to tears. I still can't believe your gone. After six months, it still doesn't feel real but the sadness and the hurt I feel is very real. I feel like a part of me is gone forever, but you will forever be in our hearts and on our minds. I Love You and Miss You each and every day, Bubby!!

“ Well first of all, Happy Fathers Day. I came to your grave the other day. Your mom has it looking so gorgeous, of course. She always did want was best for you. There was alot of flowers in Harley Davidson colors, I knew you'd like that. I know it was hard on mom to come there, I dont think she was really ready; neither of us was. But I'm glad we finally made it up there. I love hearing all her stories about you. I've never heard about or seen a love more true then the one you had for eachother. She really feels like no one is here for her anymore.. When we were at your grave she said "When he died, it's like apart of me went with him" & I understand completely how she feels. I think the quote on your tombstone fits the way I've felt for so long, perfectly. It brought tears to my eyes. I talked to Brian the other day.. He called up Timmy's. Mom had made me mad cause she wouldnt come get me, and I was crying when he called. He sounds just like you. Gah, I'd give anything in the world just to hear your voice. I never thought I'd miss those random phone calls like I do today. I really wish I could call you just to say sorry for not taking every moment I had to talk or spend with your for all it was worth, to tell you I love you & I miss you, & Happy Fathers Day. Dad took me driving, and for the first time I wasnt afraid.. honestly I felt like you were with me.. when I got back to Mamaw's, one of those songs from 3 Doors Down came on and I called mom to talk to her about it, but she was asleep. I dont know how your mom handles you being burried up the road, she's very very strong for being able to do so. Because honestly, I couldnt do it. Thats why I wanted to come home early, knowing youre there but I cant see you, absolutely drove me insane. But I just wanted to drop by to tell you Happy Fathers Day & how much I love and miss you. Love always, your angel. <3

Megan Roberts - June 19, 2011 at 06:34 PM

“ Well me and Megan came and seen where you rest today, We stopped by your moms to make sure that it was ok, but she must not of been home, her lil tre on the front porch had feel over and I picked it up for her. Oh Ronald she has it looking so beautiful with all the pretty flowers and just seeing the tombstone with your and dukes picture was just georgeous. You could tell that she has worked really hard on everything. I seen your truck and just cried. I know you loved that old truck. Megan said that you and duke are with each other now and she took alot of pictures, I had forgot that it was at the head of the holler, You know it was sad to come there to visit you knowing that we were going to make a home on that spot, not bury you there. I really miss you Ronald, I miss our talks and you always being there for me no matter what, or you just calling me or meg. I told megan today that when I lost you I lost a piece of myself. Im not happy, I cry alot and no one understands me. I wanted to get a rose bush and put up there for you from me and meg, so it was something that would always be there, but I wanted to ask your mom first to make sure that it was ok. I know that noone ever really understood us and how that we stayed so close after everything, but I thank God everyday that we forgave each other for everything and that our love for each other never went away. That drive reminded me of the time that I drove to Daniel Boone and met you and we stayed up all night talking and we laughed and you held me so tight and I slept in your arms, Im sorry I never was able to come to Tn and see you, but my old car just wouldn't of made it. I know that my plan was to get a new car and come see you this summer. I drove the van today. Meg went to visit her dad and we stopped to see him and the first thing he said to her was you hurt my feelings. Megan said stop, it was kinda funny cause we had talked about it already if he was going to say anything to her about you. She won't let anyone say anything about you to her, she said that you was always there for her and treated her as your own daughter when you didn't have to and she wanted to tell you Happy Fathers day today. Im sorry, you know how emotional I am and like I said I cry alot, but I have to go for now. I love you Ronald,

“ I was gonna come see you next wednesday.. but i dont even want to come anymore. I have to go to Summer school on the 20th because mom wont tell them to let me do plato. So theres no point in me come up. I'd be there for 5 days. more like 3, 1 driving up there, 3 seeing SOME of my family, & 1 driving back. She said I could go home then come back, and then go back home. But I want to come up there stay for a few weeks, then come home. It'd be pointless. My summer is officially ruined. More stress, and stuff I dont want to deal with. I wish I was where you was. Nothing to worry about then, except being happy. & I always would be. I miss you. & I'll make it up there to see you sometime. Im gonna get a job when school starts back, so I'll have no time to go home. Mamaw and Papaw are gonna die soon, their getting really old, and I wont even see them as much as I want. I havent cried this hard in forever, I've never wanted to be home this bad. I hate Lexington. I hate Tates Creek. I hate the city. Mom doesnt care about anything except for how my actions make her look. But I'm going to go. I love you.

She's wanting to go up and spend sometime with her mamaw this summer, but I think she's afraid to. Her and Joey are still not talking much. and I just know that if Joey said anything to her that she would say how she feels about it all. she is doing alot better, but she has her days, you know Megg, She really loved you Ronald, she really thought alot of you and being there for her and doing the things a father does with his child. Im not tring to say anything bad about Joey. But he shouldn't be mad cause you were good to Megan adn loved her probably more than he does. You taught her how to fish and swim, you kissed the booboo's, he wanted to know why that I had so many pictures of you and her and that hurt him, well seriously... why? You know how that I have begged him to do with her and be there for her and he always has something better to do or a woman that is driving him crazy. Im sorry., But thank you, for being there for her and making her see what having a dad is all about. She does have some good memories of us 3 and the things you taught her. I know we wanted another kid, but you always said you had Meg and didn't need anymore, You were the "GREAT ONE" God I loved you so much. I miss talking to you telling me your crazy stories and you listening to mine. You sitting out on your porch cause you got alil better reception out there, no matter if it was raining, snowing, you would talk to me as long as you could LOI. Sometimes you stayed out there hours. I miss you, so much Ronald.
I love you,
Lisa

“ Who ever said "time heals all", must have never lost someone they truly loved. Reality really sets in with time. I miss you so much and I have thought about you all day. My birthday is coming up and you would always call me to tell me Happy Birthday. I am going to miss that call. What I wouldn't give for one more chance to talk to you. You never failed to remember me on my birthday. It's funny how much it means to me now. If life and your loss has taught me anything in the past few months, it is to treasure all of the special moments you have with the ones you love because it may be the last and to always let the people you love know how much you love them. My last memory of you will always be you dressing up as Santa on Christmas Eve this past year for the kids. I knew, in that moment, that it would always be a special memory of us together.....I just didn't know it would be our last.

I will always love you!!!

“ Good morning, I just wanted to stop by real fast you and let you know that I love and miss you soo much. I seen the pictures that Stephanie posted of were you rest. It is soooo beautiful, I wouldn't of expected anything else, I know that Vickey has worked so hard on making it so beautiful, I just cried when I seen it. God Ronald I miss you so much, my heart just aches for you and to hear your voice. I know that I will get to see you again someday. I sat on m porch about all day yesterday just talking to you. Loosing you has really turned my world upside down. Im so glad that I had you and that our love and friendship never changed. I heard this song this morning, I can't love you back, and it made me think of you. Id give anything to have you back, This girl that I don't even know sent me a message after you died, that said that she had a dream of you and that you kept telling her that she had to call me and tell me something from you and that all you kept saying was thte color red and that all she could get out of it was that it meant love, she said that it may mean something to me, but she couldn't make anysense out of it and that you told her that you would check back to see if she got ahold of me. I know that you loved me and I loved you. I can't wait to get to come see you, I seen that your mom said that it was ok that if any of your family or friends are welcome to come visit you. I want to thank her for that, cause honstley I was scared. Meg wears that cross necklace that you made her all the time and has pictures of you sitting by her bed of you and her. she loved and still loves you sooo much. Well I have to get ready for work, Ill be back soon, I love you Ronald Keith more than anybody knows.
Love you always and forver,

“ Good Morning my love, I miss you so much and somedays I just cry all day, I wanted to bring Megan to visit you this weekend for Memorial day , but you know my old car won't make the trip. So me, mom, Meg and Starr are going to come in a couple of weeks. I had Megan ask Steph if it was ok, and she said yes. I know your mom has probably got it looking so beautiful, just like she has her house and yard. Remember when I use to try to get you to ask her to make you one of her famous deliouse pumpkin rolls and send it to me. LOL, Iv'e been riding my bike alot more you would be so proud of me. I feel like when I'm having one of those bad days, one of our sons will come on and I think that your tring to tell me that you are still with me. I had to go back to the dr the other day, been having alot of chest pains latley, I have a blockage on the left side of my heart and Im really scared, then our song strawberry wine came on and I know that you where there just tring to tell me you were with me and not to worry. I made chicken casserole and thought of you, I tried to call your phone the other day and some woman answered and I just cried cause that was the only thing that I had left to hear your sweet voice, Megan is doing sooo much better, she has brought up alot of her grades, You would be so proud of her. Well I have to run to the store, I just wanted to tell you I love an miss you sooo much today and everyday. Love you always and forever.

“ I cried & watched you pass away, although I loved you dearly, I couldn't make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest. God broke my heart to prove to me that he only takes the best. Put this on your status for memorial day if there is someone in Heaven that you miss everyday. I Love and miss you soo much Roanld.

“ Ronald, I visit this tribute often. But, I can't always find the words to write.. Words just can't express this kind of heartbreak. I think about you all the time. I was at work last night and a nurse's phone rang....her ringtone was the song "If I die young". I couldn't catch my breath for a second. It just hurts so bad to even hear that song now. I don't sleep well. I stay awake all hours of the night thinking about how I would have done things differently. I never dreamed in a million years we'd have to say goodbye so soon. It's so hard because so many things had to go unsaid. I just hope you knew how much you meant to me...how much you meant to all of us. I love and miss you so very much.

“ Well I just wanted to sit down for a min. and talk to you. Im really missing you today. I miss you everyday but todays a bad day. Its rainy and cold and nasty out, I started to work and had to come back home, I wanted to thank you for visting Megan, she woke up cring and ran to me ans said he finally visted me and told me all about the dream. I just cried Ronald, she missses you so much. She showed me this thing she had to do for school about if she could go back 10 years what would she change, it was all about me and you. She's doing alot better and were actually getting along better, well I think we are, LOL but I don't know if she feels like that or not. She still has her days oh, just a typical teenager, or Ill tell her what would you think. I heard her listening to that song, address in the stars over and over this morning, I asked her if she had heard the song, If heaven wasn't so far away. She listened to it and just cried. She's texted me a few times today telling me that she is really missing you alot today and cried all day at school. I told her you wouldn't want her to cry like that. Thank goodness she has councling today.

I sit down a couple of weeks ago and fixed out my will. Yeah that was kinda mortal.I told Megan that I left everything to my sister and for her to take care of Megan with all my life insurance. That I want to be creamnated also and I want some of my ashes speingled onyour grave so we can be with each other for ever, I hope that your mom and dad and family don't mind. I asked Megan to ask Steph if we could come up to the grave to see you. Some of me is to be sprinkled in the ocean, I find peace there, and you know we talked about all of this. The the rest of me I want megan to have a flower garden and sprinkle me there, you know how I love flowers. Well I hope its not for awhile, but you never know and after loosing you its like I have decided to change my life around and make sure that I have everything in order. Well My head hurts. Im going to lay down for a bit before I go get Megan. I love and miss you lots.

“ Well hello brother-in-law,
The days are going by and there is not one day your brother and i don't think about you, Ronald you are so very missed! Your brother feels like the lonely ranger.....he doesn't tell me that but i can look at him and just about tell how he is feeling....without you Ronald he is so not caring what goes on.....i feel like sometimes he just tries to float through the day..so sad! We go to my family's for dinners and things like that but it's not the same....he's needs people to let him know he's still here and is loved so much...no one never calls him just to say, brian I was thinking of you and wanted to let you know I LOVE YOU. Ronald you called Brian everyday and he just misses you so much, you guys were so close! Ronald i would give anything for you to be here laughing or calling Brian some bad names.....you just cracked me up so much!!! You were always such a special man with such kind words and the biggest heart in the world! Your whole family misses you so much! I was thinking of you,Brian,Stephanie, and your mother today cause they are not going to open the Virgie pool....and Brian has told me so many stories of you guys going to the pool and you boys being a little mean at times...haha...and also people who know you all sayin what cute kids you guys where and how you guys use to spend alot of summers together at the pool....well now Ashayla and Ashley go there every year in the summer and they have made alot of memories and I'm hoping they keep it open so the girls can have such great memories like you and your family made!! With you gone i have sure figured out life is short and we should make the best of everyday cause you never know what tomorrow will bring.....I try to make the best of everyday.....but somethings you just can't change! We miss you....We love you and wish you were here!! I will be back to talk to u another day((((HUGS))))

“ Finally. You finally visited me in my dreams.. For a moment I felt like you never left. and Then I woke up and realized that you are gone. It was a confusing dream. You was in your casket, and we was in a mall or something. But it was like we got locked in there.. anyways, after everyone went to sleep, you got out of your casket and I was still up so when I seen you standing there I gave you a hug - it was the best hug I've ever gotten. I told you I missed you and I loved you and you said I was doing fine without you.. But you know thats not true. You told me i needed to be nicer to mom, and try harder in school. & ofcourse no boys. Haha. You told me you loved me too, and that I'd always be your babygirl. & then I woke up.. Thank you.. I enjoy seeing you in my dreams, it makes it feel like youre not gone, not completely. You're still watching over me, and you still will always be here for me. I love you so much bobo, & I miss you beyond words. Come visit me again soon? I love it. <3

“ I know that its been awhile since I've been on here to talk to you, sometimes it just so hard to come here and talk to you when I really just want to call you and talk to you. I've needed you to talk to so much here lately. Well I passed my motorcycle class and got my permit, I only missed 2 out of the 30 questions. I still got to get my bike tagged and Im ready to ride. Another one of my dreams come true. When I passed I called you to tell you I passed but got your vm, then I realized what I had done. I find myself calling your phone alot, just to hear your voice, Ill call it over adn over and just cry. Megan is doing some better. she finally seen the dr. and she said that Megan is depressed and has ADHD, and she put her back on adhd med. but not on any deppression meds. She is underweight and needs to gain some more before she puts her on anything else. shes actually been doing some better since she started the med. Remember when she was on it when we lived at Johns Creek and wasn't allowed to have choclote milk or ketchup anything that had red 40 in it, and seh would always come to you and get you to make her choc milk, and you would tell her not to tell me. And how that she would always sit in your lap and rub your beard till she feel asleep. God Ronald she loved you so much, I know that you knew that and that you loved her too just like your own, you always said that was your baby girl and that you would never have any kids cause of her. I know how happy that you were that you all had started talking more and that seh was telling you everything, some things that you didn't want to hear, lol. Her and Joey are still not talking, He'll call every once in a while and check on her or just to start a argument, Megan is 16 and she is to old to whip, I don't whip her. I ground her adn take her prize possesions, her phone and computer that seems to work better than anything. Her grades are still not that good, but shes tring so hard to bring them back up. After we lost you she went down hill for awhile. Were getting along alot better now youd be happy to know that. I wish that you were here to talk to her. I tought about us on Easter and the fun things that we use to do with Megan on Easter, coloring eggs, hidding eggs and fixing her easter basket. and how that I use to always fix you one too. I loved adn still love you Ronald, I think about you everyday, I dream of you all the time. Megan gets so mad cause I dream of you and she don't I honestly feel that you are with me watching over me. I talked to Tommy Dale a few weeks ago, I didn't know that he had a lil boy, and I talked to Scottie the other night. I know that all your friends and family miss you. Scottie was telling me that he was a palbearer at the funeral, I told him that I couldn't stay for that, Megan cried and begged me not to make her see that, seh just couldn't handle it. So please don't be mad at me for that. As you can tell with some of the things that Meg has written you, she has had such a hard time loosing you. As i have too. Well I hate to get off here but me and mom have been walking and she will be here in a min. I love you Ronald.

“ So. I'm laying here in my bed when I noticed, I havent came here in I know over a week. so I figured I'd come by and tell you about things. My grades are starting to look up, I'm trying to not argue with mom as much, though we both know how hard that is. She gives me headaches, haha. I still wont talk to dad.. but I wanna go home sometime soon. I miss it, & I miss my family. the only problem is, you're there. I know you're there, you're there in spirit, but you're also here in spirit.. So what makes Pikeville so different? Maybe its because thats where you're burried. When I do finally decide to come home, I'm going up Rhondas and I'm going to ask her to please bring me to see you. I'm sorry me and mom left before they.. burried you. It was just to much for either of us to handle. I dont think mom wouldve taken seeing the love of her life, being burried thing to well at all. Kindof like, I wouldnt have taken seeing my only father figure in my life, being burried well at all. You still havent came to visit me in any of my dreams, and I really wish you would.. Make sure it's a dream I remember too because I dont wanna miss a single detail. I talked to Stephanie on facebook the other day, it's good hearing from them, and i'll never get tired of hearing how much you thought of me and how much you loved me. Because I've never in my life had someone love me unconditionally the way you did, and show it. I know mom does, but for somereason it just doesnt amount to you right now. you was my safe landing when I got in trouble with her, you calmed her down and kept me and her from going at eachothers throats.. now, neither of us have a safe landing but eachother.. & we dont even have that. I want to start going to church more, I think having God in my life more would do a lot of good for me. I heard this song the other day called "New Again" by Brad Paisley ft Sara Evens and it almost made me cry. I hate having to come to a memorial wall to tell you all of this, I'd rather hear your voice on the phone, and not just your voicemail either. Come to think of it, I'd rather see you in person.. everyday. No one one will ever take your place Bobo, dont ever doubt that. I have to go do dishes, I'll be back soon. I love you with all my heart and soul.
Love, you're angel.

“ Good morning, Ive had you on my mind alot for the past few days, today is a going to be a rough one, today makes 3 years since I lost my daddy. I miss him so much. Me and mom have started walking of the evenings after work and we were talking yesterday about you and dad, you know something weird, you know how close mom and my dad was, just like me and you were. They still talked all the time. well dad died 4 days after moms birthday and you died 5 days after mine. I think about our last conversation that Tuesday morning, I didn't want to go into work, cause I wanted to keep talking to you. It started out me crying cause you didn't call me on my birthday and then you explained that you had been back home and had just got back to Tn. How that you had thought about me oh, I remember telling you that the only phone calls that I looked forward to on my bday was from you and my dad and I didn't get either one, how I didn't know that was going to be the last time I talked to you. I tried to call you back on that Thursday but you didn't answer. God I wish that I had got to talk to you one last time. Then that sat. morning I picked up the phone to call you and then put it down cause Megan started hollerin about something. That was the last time I heard your sweet voice and the last time we said "I Love You" You said I will always love you, and you knew that I would always love you. I heard that song by Kenny Rogers, I can't unlove you yesterday and I just cried, I remember when it came out, you were still in jail, and when you heard it, you called and said listen to that song, It reminded you of me. We had so many songs that reminded us of each other. We had a love that was unconditional and everlasting. I know that I will never find anyone to love me the way you loved me, nor will I ever love anyone the way I loved you. I miss you sooo much and our long talks. I call your phone so I can just hear your voice and just wish youd pick up the phone and say Yeah. Its not fair that you had to leave this world so soon. I know that I have to be good so I make it to heaven and be with you again. I know that you will be waiting on me with your arms opened ready to hug and kiss me. Well honey I got to get up and clean my room, Starr will be here in a lil bit, were dog sitting for her today, shes going to Keenland with some of her friends. I love and miss you sooo much.

“ I remember in 4th grade you sent me a half of a dozen pink roses for Valentines Day. I was so surprised. I had never gotten that many roses before and it was such a big deal to me. You were 18 years old. Most boys that age wouldn't want to spend their money on their little sister but you have always had such a big heart. I miss you so much. Love you always.... Sis!!!

“ Well I finally get a chance to sit down and talk to you. God knows I miss you so much, I've been having a time with Megan as you can see. I wish that you were here to tell her that she needs to really try in school and that her smart mouth has got to stop. I have no one to talk to about her besides my mom. Ever since you died its like we are at each others throats. I get message after message from her teachers on how poorly she is doing in school, or what a attitude she has with the teacher. I know that growing up is not easy but I have had about enough of her little smart mouth. I have grounded her and took everything away from her and she will do good till she gets all her privalgas back and then were right back to where we started from. Im so tired of her telling me she hates me and counting down till she's 18 so she can move out or how bad that she has it here. Why you know that she has it made, you know that I do everything for her and give her everything that she wants, but since Ive quit letting her run all over me and treat me like crap she resents me. But I can't be her friend I have to be the mom and what happened years ago I don't let her hold that ovr my head anymore. So her new excuse is you. Your the reason why that she has attitude or has quit tring in school. I just wish I had you here to talk to and tell me that its going to be ok. Her and Joey are still not talking, I try to tell her that he is her dad and she shouldn't feel the way she does but it does me no good. You know how he is and how jealous he was of you. LOL well he still is. As for Ray, I do really care for him, he reminds me so much of you its not funny, I know we talked about that alot and I know how you felt about it, but don't let Megan try and act like he is mean to her cause he isn't by no means, he gives her money all the time to go and do stuff adn she treats him like crap too, so he's quit doing for her like he did, he gives her every opportunity to make money and she doesn't want to do the chore for it she just thinks that we have a money tree and we don't. He helps me with the bills and buys the groceries so I have extra money for her. But its still not enough for her. I just don't know what to do anymore. I have enough on my plate to deal with her and her smart mouth. I think that Im going to call Brian and ask him if he will try and talk to her that you wouldn't like it onw bit to know how bad that she is treating me and how poorly she is doing in school. I called your phone for the first time the other day, hoping that you would pick up and say yeah like you use to, adn me just start telling you everything that is going on adn hearing you say put her on the phone. I dream of you all the time adn think of all the fun times we had and the long talks that we had. I cherish those talks and my memories, that is something that no one can take from me. I know God has his reasons why that he took you so soon, I just wish that he would of left you here with us alil bit longer cause we need you too. I know were not suppose to question him and ask why but I do everyday. I know that your family is having a hard time too and my heart goes out to your mom and dad, adn the rest of your family, cause I know how bad there hearts ache for you. I pray that God watches over them and helps them find peace again someday as I do for your whole family and for us too. I loved and still love you so much Ronald Keith I will never get over you. You were my soulmate, the love of my life and my bestest friend. I know that you knew that and felt the same way, as we told each other that everytime we talked and how that we would never love anyone like we loved each other. No one understood me like you did, you told me that you knew me better than I knew myself and you were right most of the time. I miss you begging me to come see you and me telling you that I would when I got a newer car that would make the trip. Well I still haven't got a newer car but I did get a motorcycle. Ray bought it for me a couple weeks ago and I got signed up for the motorcycle clas

Me and the wife were walking in the park and I looked at her and and said "I see you little with your orange hat on" She looked at me like I was crazy but I told her you would get.. You know what he looked like right. HAHAHAHA. Man I miss you so much. Just wish we would have had so much more time together. It just don't seem right but I won't question. My phone accidentally called you the other day and I just sat in the car for about an hour looking at the number praying you did call me and this is a dream. I love you Bro. I talk to your brother from time to time. Man you guys look IDENTICAL. Well, I will talk to you soon.. Oh yeah, I still can't believe you peed on me. “ hey bobo.

how are you? Im assuming they're better for then they are for me. I miss you. A lot. I try not to think about it. You know, at first when this happened, I thought that I had to be sad or you would think I didnt care. That my whole life should just stop.. but now I realize. Thats not what you want at all. You want me to be happy, and live my life to the fullest. You know I care, its not possible for me not to care that someone who was literally like a father to me, is gone. Me and dad? Still no progress. i wish you were here. It's actually weird not getting random phone calls from you. Everytime something goes wrong, I find myself literally aching to talk to you. I wish we wouldve started getting close again a long time ago. Actually. I wish you and mom wouldve never split up. But honestly Bobo, how did you put up with her? She's driving me insane. Haha. I'm kidding. Me and her arent close anymore either. When you first left, I couldnt even look at her without wanting to cry. At the point, everything in everyway reminded me of you. I refuse to listen to "Angel" by Shaggy. It breaks my heart. You were such a good person. This shouldnt have happened to you.. no one deserves it really. But we all know God has a plan for you. I wish me and mom would start going to church again... but we cant leave the house for more than 10 minutes without who idiotic boyfriend flipping out. I wish she would leave him, I really honestly do. But since she claims she's happy, I'll just bite my tongue, and keep everything peaceful. I want to change alot of things. Starting with my grades. Ugh. I hate highschool. It's so stressfull. :I Dont worry though, I'm trying to turn it all back around. Day by day, slowly but surely. The other day Dad texted mom saying "she'll never make it our of highschool" & after 3-4 weeks of not talking to me period, he has the nerve to call me and tell me I need to try in school? 1. he doesnt see/talk to me enough to tell me to do anything. & 2. I love how he shows much support and faith in me, dont you? I'd give my right arm to have had you as my real father. That may be bad to say, but I garuntee I wouldve never went through what I have with him, with you. I dont think you could stand seeing me hurt.. in any way. I know you tried keeping your comments to yourself when he would do something to upset me and mom, believe me I know how hard that is. I have to do it all the time, but seriouslyyy. I'm starting to not care and I just let him have it. I mean, why should I be afraid to hurt someone who's hurt me plenty of times. Right? Yeah yeah I know, you're probably shaking your head, saying "no. not right. hes your dad". Trust me I know. Moms repeated that 100 times. I'm sorry he is mad that I'm upset that you're gone. You treated me good. You spent time with me. You we're always there for me. You had faith in me. You loved me unconditionally for 16 years, & I didnt even live with you in 8-9 of them. Thats what a real father/man is. & i really admire you for that. I can set and say I never had a father, but you know what? I'm wrong. You mightve not been around physically, but in other ways you were. & that means more to me than anything. I miss hearing you say you love me and I'll always be your babygirl.. It would be so random. but it always made me smile. (: Me and mom fight so much, i cant remember the last time we just looked at eachother and said "i love you." If you were here, I'm sure she wouldnt be so stressed and on the edge. I'll help her as much as possible, but shes not letting me in . So, I dont know how much or what i can do. But I'll try for you. I try not to cry anymore. Actually, I hardly ever cry anymore. Over anything. I really do think that I'm all cried out. It comes as like a few tears or my eyes get watery, but it doesnt last long. I think I'm so depressed and low lately that I've realized not even crying gets it all out. I'm going to start writing again.. so I can tell someone how I feel without really telling someone. Spring Break is in 24 hours, and I couldnt be more excited. We're not

“ Ronald,

I will start by saying we can't stand this at all!!! We know that god always has a greater plan for people in there life, but we really hate this plan! I don't doubt God at all but i really wish he could have let us all grow old together!!! But i know Ronald we will see you soon!! You need to know that everyone misses you so much and we think of you alot through the days! I was talking to your nephew corey, and he misses you so bad and wishes he would have stayed with you last summer, he thought so much of you! Brian use to talk to u alot through the days and now he only has me to talk to.....yeah u know he loves that...hahaha!!!! I was telling Corey how we will miss coming to your house in the summer! The girls would play in your feild and come back in with ticks all over them, and we would all go crazy!! LOL!! But really it was so much fun and it always was when my family would visit you! I remember how worried you where when we came to your house and i was so sick, you really cared what happened to me and i thank you for always being concerned!!! As the days go by it still feels like oh my god is this real, sometimes something will happen here and it will make me think of you! Its so sad. I really hate that Brian keeps things held inside, cause you can never tell really what he is feeling=(He is going through alot right now with the whole kids grow up thing....he has had some of them talk mean to him and i hope that god helps them all see that its not worth the hurt! We miss you and what you would say when we had problems with friends or family, you had some great words of wisdom....hahaha!!! I have been thinking of making a whole lot of changes in my life, and yes they include god, but i guess god will let me know! I wish we could see you and talk to u, i mean it is insane how this makes a person feel and you are my brother-in-law, so i could not even begin to know how your parents must feel!!! I know that all of your family wish the same things i do, they hurt so bad...i know you would hate to see them all so upset and just hurting everyday but i tell everyone who prays to please pray for them, i know it want take the hurt away but with people praying hopefully it will ease the pain! Well Ronald i have not wrote to you in awhile so just wanted to say a little bit to let ya know, we love and miss you so “ I havent been here in a while.. I've been trying to avoid it actually. The more I come to this page the worse I feel. But I miss you, so i had to come talk. (: I'm doing good, a lot better then I had been to be honest. I'm trying in school again, I havent cried in a few nights, & I've not been letting silly things get in the way of my happiness. You cross my mind daily, no matter how or what it has to do with. Somehow and for somereason you come to mind. I bought a necklace the other day, because it reminded me of you. It has two shark teeth on it, and a skull head from a bull. I wear it almost everyday. Mom got a lighter with one on it too. A lot of things have been happening at mom, and I honestly wish mom could talk to you so would chill out and be happy again. I wish you were alive to tell her to leave the guy she's with because you know she's not happy. I know she's not happy, though she does claim to be. Shes always on the verge of crying. She says alot of it has to do with me, but I think it has a lot to do with him... But she wont listen. Oh well. But I miss you and I just wanted to let you know everything is going a little better. I love you . I'll be back soon. (: ?

I just want to let you know Ronald we think of you everyday and i wish u were here!!! Brian has some CD's of music in his truck that are yours and when i listen to them i wonder which song you liked the best and then i start thinking of all kinds of stuff you would do or say all the time.....and well it just breaks my heart! You are so missed by you brother and i know sometimes he just feels lost without you and he will go sit in the garage to be alone and well you know that can't happen cause Ashley follows him everywhere.....she's afraid he will get out of her sight. But he show's me things that were yours and i wish he could talk to u!!! I'm really going to miss coming to see you in the summer! I just wanted u to know we think of u everyday and that I love you and miss you and that you where a great uncle to my girls and i know they miss you too!!

“ My dear sweet Bubby it is very late but I cannot sleep again tonight. My thoughts are always of you. I dialed your cell phone just to hear your voice. How I feel like every day is a struggle for me. I have cried so much just wishing I could hug you. You came into my life on September 18, 1972 , I was fifteen years old . It was one of the happiest days of my life. How happy my Daddy was that his first grandchild was a boy after having us three girls. What a joy you were to him for what short time he was here. You and I grew up together. I have been remembering all the things about you that was so special whether it was good or something that would worry me. It made you the person that you are. I am proud to say that you were my son. Your brother and sister miss you dearly. Each day is so lonely here without you. I am consently playing the song DYING YOUNG I cannot say how it make me feel but I think why I understand that you liked it. I have learned alot in losing you, how losing a loved can change your whole out look on life espically your child. To always let people know how much you love them for life is short , to take time out to spend with each other becuse all I have now is my loving memories of you. Sometimes I get so mad because left me. My only hoby is that some day our family will be whole again. Mommys big baby boy may you rest in the arm of god and know that a mothers love is niether forgotten and always there. I love you so much! MOMMY

I know our love for each other never changed, no matter the distance between us or the circumstances that kept us apart. You were my bestest friend in the whole world and gave me the best advice you could, Even if it wasn't something I wanted to hear, you just say I hate that for you. LOL... “ I have come on this site to right write a comment to you so many times but i never really knew what to say it has been bothering me because i haven't wrote anything so i wanted to It really has been hard for all of us but we know that you are in a better place now we all think about you a lot One day I was at school and someone's ring tone went off and it was if I die young and it felt like you were there it was strange it also felt like my heart was going to drop to the floor You were such a good person that had such a big heart, and you were really funny lol. I was always shy when I was little, but I wish that I would have talked and got closer to you I am really happy that whenever me mammaw and Vickie came to TN the last time you said “come on destany you can ride with me” so I got to ride with you from Ryan's to mammaws but just in that little ride it was really fun, Listening to Lady Gaga lol showing each other our speakers and talking and having conversation. I still remember all the things we talked about and then we had to stop by your house to get Vickie's movie? I also remember whenever me and mammaw went over your house the first night you were just sitting there playing world of war craft and you were like hold on lol then finally you was like I got company ill be back lol the last time I seen you was when I stopped by Vickie's to drop off those gifts from Christmas and I can still picture you sitting there smiling. I still have your letters you wrote me and I will always keep them I read them the other day lol. You said “you don't need those stripes in your hair” ha I always liked getting letters from you. I am sorry I am just now commenting to you but I miss you and so does everyone else We all talk about you and think about you a lot Also, my dad was really glad that you stopped by his house the last time you were in he misses you a lot too.
Love you BoBo

“ Ronald,
How are you big guy? We miss you so bad, words cannot even begin to tell you how much!!! Its so odd here not being able to pick up the phone and call you or our phone ringing and it being you.....very weird for us, but i guess thats something we will never be use to! I miss watching you and Brian playing World of War Craft everyday and then getting mad at each other over that crazy and game and cussin each other.....that use to make me crack up at u too!!!! I miss you coming in here and grabbin the girls and giving them hugs and kisses, i always thought that was so sweet.....and they loved it too even though Ashayla would run smiling thinking you wouldn't get that hug and kiss from her....but u always got it anyway. Ashley just loved everything about you she truely thought you were the "great one" she just couldn't wait to see u when she new u were coming to stay alnight.....They both wanted to show you everything they did.....like the last weekend you stayed with us, Ashayla had to show you all of her art she had been doing and they both was fighting and playing with you in the living room floor.....i was thinking of that and i swear i hope the girls never forget that weekend with you!!! There's so much about you that was always so great!!! You had the biggest heart in the world and always try to tell me what you thought was right about just anything and would always say you couldn't understand people and how they think but always assured me that it would one day get better....i hope you were right!! Brian misses you so bad and i know he does we sometimes talk about you and the funny things you would do or say.....but i know his heart is broke and there is nothing i can do to fix it.....except talk about you and let him know that i'm here for him always.....i really hate to see your whole family in so much pain.....but there is no medicine for a broken heart.....all i can offer...is to be there for them if they want someone to talk to or just give hugs.....Ronald i know you are up there laughing at me thinkin.....yeah right Nichole.....Nichole's a dork....well don't be laughing...LOL!!! I miss you alot and will always remember the good times and the bad ones cause they were all great to me cause u were in them.....LOVE U!!!

“ You've visited everyone in their dreams it seems like , except me. & i keep asking mom why? and she said she thinks you think im not ready. & maybe she's right. maybe i'm not. Brian told mom to tell me if i ever needed to talk to someone, I could always come talk to him. & I'll probably take him up on that offer. I miss you bobo. I keep wanting to dial your number, but that's no use. You're not there. & you wont pick up. No more random phone calls of you telling me how much you miss me and how much you love me. We just started getting close again, & now that's gone. Moms right, I regretted it. I wish more than anything we talked more. I wish I couldve seen you one last time. It's hard and it doesnt get any easier. I keep thinking the pain will go away, but I'm dead wrong. It never will. I can feel myself going crazy. I've let myself go. I was doing good in school, & now that you're gone I dont even try. I cant focus on anything but you. i cry.. everynight. Theres not a night that goes by that i dont cry myself to sleep. & i feel like if i tell you this you'll somehow come back. Stupid, right? I know you wont. Mom said that you used to tell her that if i didnt straighten up you were going to come down here, if that still stood strong, i'd do anything just to see you again. I'll never forget our conversation we had last. But moms right, you wouldnt have wanted me to let myself go like this. So i'm going to try and turn myself back around on the right path for you. I know you wanted whats best for me, so i need to do everything i can to do that. You're my inspiration to do better now. & you've changed how i look at things. I know that i shouldnt waste time, & i should make every moment count. If not, ill regrett it. you were the most wonderful person I've ever known. I promise I'll do better, I wont let you down like ive let everyone else down. You'll see. I'll make something out of myself and you'll be proud of me. Just like you always was, even if i did mess up. You had faith i'd come out of it. & i guess thats why i dont try. No one has faith in me anymore. Come visit me soon. Please? I think it'd help me alot. I love & miss you so much bobo. love always, your angel.

“ I just wanted to stop by and tell you how much I love and miss you, Im having a really hard time out of Megan, She is just so depressed and cries all the time and her grades have dropped since you left us, She got into trouble at school and the first thing I done yesterday was pick up the phone to call you and then I realized, you wasn't there anymore. I need you so much. i dreamed of you last night and you were telling me how sorry that you were that you left me and how much you loved me and I kept saying you promised me you would never leave me again and you said that God needed you and you had to go, But that you were always right there with me and for me to tell Megan that she was your angel and how much you loved her and that you were our angel now. I was crying and begging you not to leave but you said you had to but you were aleays right there walking beside me. Thank you fo much for visting me, even if it was in a dream, I know that you are with me and even though that I have to talk to the sky to talk to you, I know you hear me. I love you sweetheart, love your Lisa

“ i feel like this is the only way i can talk to you. & lately thats all i want to do. I've honestly let myself go. I dont see the point in trying anymore. everyone's given up on me, and they think i dont care. but thats not it at all. i do care. but i dont see why try when nobody makes it out alive anyway. we live and we die. & thats the end of the story. after you left everything started going down hill. i've given up on myself and everything around me. id give anything to see you. i feel like no one understands. even mom. you used to tell us everything would be okay, and i need to hear that. and i cant. everytime the radio comes on theres a song that reminds us of you, so we know you're with us. but it's not the same. my prayers go out to your whole family. moms taking this better then i am, she has ray so things arent as hard for her. for me.. its like the end of the world. & i dont know how long this feeling will last. it hurts bobo and i just want to be in your arms. dad wont talk to me. & ray thinks i hate him.. i dont but he reminds me so much of you so its hard for me to even look at him, muchless talk to him. you were the only person who never failed to let me know that you have faith in me. & i need that right now. i need you right now. i try to think of all the happy times we had, but i was so little that remember hardly any of em. & the ones i do remember makes me miss you more. I feel like ive lost my father. & i hoped it'd be a while before i felt that. we all miss you so much. I love you more than anything. I always will. Until the day i die. xoxo, your babygirl. ?

“ OH BUBBY WE MISS YOU SO MUCH! WORDS CANNOT DESCRIBE HOW MUCH WE LOVE YOU. IN MY MIND I'M CONSTANTLY SEEING YOUR BEAUTIFUL SMILING FACE, AND HOW YOU WERE ALWAYS JOKING AROUND. I WAS SO PROUD TO BE YOUR AUNT! OUR LIVES WILL BE SO LONELY WITHOUT YOU. WHEN YOU WERE LITTLE, I USED TO ASK YOU (WHOSE BOY ARE YOU?) YOU WOULD SAY IN THE SWEETEST LITTLE VOICE AND THAT BIG BEAUTIFUL SMILE (FAY'S BOY!) YOU WERE A WONDERFUL PRECIOUS GIFT FROM GOD. NO MATTER HOW OLD YOU GOT YOU WERE ALWAYS FAY'S BOY AND ALWAYS WILL BE! AS LONG AS I LIVE ON THIS EARTH I WILL BE THINKING OF YOU AND MISSING YOU WITH ALL MY HEART!

“ Bubby I am missing you every minute of the day. Your Dad found a video of you that you were filming with the camera ,as you were filming you was talking to the camera calling your self THE GREAT ONE as you always did. You filmed your truck saying this was your ride,then showed the stereo saying that was your jam.then filming outside the truck saying Micheal Ray needs to get that green color off his truck.then moving on to a dog that was sitting in the yard that you called Bandit ,making the remark he was the only friend you had at that time in Rogersville. Telling the dog to sit obeying your every command.If you only knowed how many people have told me that you was such a kind hearted person and was all about family.how everyone said that you had made a difference in thier lives whether it was family problems or them telling how to make a change in thier life. You may have not realized it but you did make a difference and was loved by many friends and family. You showed us not to be afraid to say I LOVE YOU! Each day does not get easier for me and I want you to know that you had so much love in your life that any one person could ever have in life.My heart will always be broken.Love you Mommys big baby boy.

“ I'm having a real bad day today, can't stop thinking about you and how much I want to talk to you. I keep thinking its going to get easier but it's not, Just wanting to hear your sweet voice and hear you tell me its going to be ok. Or to tell Megan that if she doesn't straighten up that your coming up here. She misses you so much and how she could talk to you and you would listen and give her the best advice that you could. She cries herself to sleep everynight over you. I cry alot but I try not to let her know cause it upsets her so much. My heart goes out to your family and your friends, There was not a person you ever met that you didn't touch there lives or there hearts in oneway or another. It must of big that big smile of yours. God I miss that and how we talked for hours about everything. I really miss you and love you more than you ever knew. We had plans, and now there gone. I know that if I search this world over I will never love or find someone that loves me as much as you did. I love you sweetheart.

Mommys big sweet baby thier is not enough word to tell you how much I LOVE YOU. Every day you are the first thing on my mind and the last thing at night hoping I am in a dream. I think about you from the first day you were born and all the years you grew up. What a big heart you had. I cannot ever remember a day that you ever disresectped me since you were grown. I thank God for the thirty-eight loving years that I had with you. My heart is broken and our family will never be the same again. There is no greater pain for a mother than a lost of a child. I can't quit thinking of you, I have my good days and my bad, I feel like I have lost aprat of myself. All the things that we talked about, that at the time may not of seemed that important, but is now. There will never be another you, you were the "Great One". I know you knew how much I loved you. Cause I sure knew how much you loved me. I was thinking of the time we went fishing with your dad and them, and we were wadding and how I kept falling. You laughed so hard at me. You and Brian arguing all the time, but you both loved each other so much, I really miss you more than you know.

“ I finally found the strength to go through all your letters today. There are so many, each one a treasure. I cried, laughed hysterically, and then cried some more. It was hard, but comforting. I have so many regrets, but they gave me peace of mind. It's so easy to get busy with life that you neglect to tell the ones you love the most, how much they mean to you. It's a hard lesson learned. I do believe that you knew, but I should have said it and shown it more. I will never forget your smile, your laugh, and your tender heart. You were one of a kind...the Great One. You'll always be missed and I'll cherish the memories forever. Love always, Kelly

“ These have been the hardest couple of weeks on me, I think about you constantly, all the GREAT Times we had together, How I chased you for so long, and you'd twirl your lil finger and say I was wrapped, I sure was, I would get people to drop me off at the old green house, "Animal House" just so I could stay with you, I remember all the camping trips, and the old green boat, Trash Trap was where you thought Megan to swim, The big rock we climbed and carved Ronald and Lisa 4 eves, when we wnet and visted Tracy at Cave Run, and you and Megan fishing. You were my best friend, youd always tell me, I know you better than you know your self, and you did. We truly loved each other unconditionally, The day we got married, Oh my what a day, both our familys were so upset, but we didn't care, we knew how much we loved each other and that was all that mattered. Our long talks we had. Now im so lost, I have noone, Why did you leave me for you promised me that youd never leave me again, Now songs that I hear that you'd always tell me to listen to or just our songs makes me not want to listen to the radio anymore. Im so glad that I got to talk to you an tell you I loved you, And how you'd always tell me how you tried to move on but you could never find anyone like me. You were the bestest friend, boyfriend, friend and husband. My heart aches to just hear your voice, Ive caught myself calling you in the last couple of weeks just cause our song came on, one headlight, or Strawberry wine, I just want you to tell me that its going to be ok. I miss you so much and I miss you so much. I'll always love you. Love Lisa

I'm so sorry for all the hurtful things dad had said to you.. i really had no idea. I wish more than anything that you and mom wouldve gotten back together. I consider you my father more than I consider him one. even though i really never talked to you, it kills me now knowing i never can again. i knew you loved me and mom but i had no idea you spoke so highly of both of us. i look at our pictures and id give anything to be back in your arms. I miss you calling me to tell me how much you loved me and how I'd always be your babygirl. I miss rubbing your beard. & going fish shopping in walmart. These have been the hardest two weeks I've had since i had to live with Dad.. Mom told me how you wanted us to come up so you could teach me how to drive... now i dont even wanna learn to drive. You had the biggest heart, & you were the first man ive ever met to step up and act like a real father even to a kid whos not yours. & after all these years, you still considered me as your own. I dont know how im going to make it without you now. I love you & i miss you so much, Bobo.

“ This is from Astro as you called me more often than you actually said my name. :) I miss you so much, Merc, and I'll never stop missing you. You were my husband's best friend, which made me love you instantly, because I knew how much it took for him to call anyone a 'friend'. Now I miss hearing the two of you laughing together at some joke one of you said, or at some stupid thing someone did on WoW. I miss your joy. Even over little stuff, you always went on and on about how happy it made you. You always made it, somehow, someway, so that no one could ever be sad around you. I miss you so much, Ron. And I'm sorry I didn't say this to you before, but I do love you. Thank you so much for being the person you were, and for loving my husband as your own brother. I really felt like part of your family.

“ I loving memory of my grandson Ronald. I have so enjoyed the precious time that I have had with Ronald here in TN over the past few years. Ronald always had a smile on his face and was always willing to help when anyone needed him to. I could say or do anything and Ronald never judged me or anyone else. Ronald was always there for me in good times and bad. When it seems that others may have judged me or turned there backs on me I always had Ronald there to ease the pain. Ronald was the son that I never had and now my heart is now broken and may never be the same again. I love you Ronald....Love, Mamaw Wilma

Mamaw Smith - January 19, 2011 at 08:31 AM

I Feel The Same Way Wilma!!! He will deffinently be missed greatly & the peoples lives that he's touched will never be the same!!! Such A Good Man!!!!

“ We grew up together in Penny Bottom. I remember when we were little Brian had a crush on my sister. We were outside playing one day and Ronald came out with a batch of chocolate chip cookies that Brian had talked him into making for her. U should have seen him walking down the road holding that pan of cookies with a pink pot holder! Hahaha! I probably haven't seen him in 20+ years but he was always funny back then!

“ We grew up in the same neighborhood & went to school together. I can remember each and every day that you would get on the school bus, you always seemed to be in a good mood, you were always happy go lucky, but weren't afraid to stand up for yourself & speak your mind when needed. I always thought that beneath that tough guy image was someone with a good heart. I believe that still is true. You weren't someone who would only speak to certain people. In other words, you weren't a snob, lol. You were the same person no matter who you were around.....you were authentic to yourself.....you were one of a kind, unique. There will never be another Ronald Little. I'm sad to hear of your passing & still somewhat in shock. However, I want you to know that I will always remember you and smile. May God carry you home and keep you near His heart.
