“ i loved playing Uno with Ruth. She would make me laugh smacking on Betty whenever she had to draw 4. Playing cards with her could always brighten your spirits. you could not play with her and not laugh and have fun. The front row in church will never be the same without seeing her sitting there. God got a wonderful new angel. We will miss her but will be comforted that she is no longer in any pain. RIP knowing that you were loved and will be missed.

“ An amazing woman of God. I've loved getting to know her over the past few years, teasing her and being teased by her. I'll miss her laugh, her wit, her wisdom, and the breakfast sandwiches on Sunday morning. Her homecoming must be quite a celebration as Papa welcomes her to her eternal home. Her physical journey is complete; she has her crown, and now an eternity awaits - a life with no tears, no pain, no sorrow. We will miss Ruth, but we will also rejoice in her faith and her homecoming.
