“ "How You Spend Your "Dash" "
I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend.
He referred to the dates on her tombstone
From the beginning...to the end.
He noted that the first came her date of birth
And spoke the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between the years. (1900-1999)

For the dash represents all the time
That she spent alive on earth...
And now only those who loved her
Know what that little line is worth.
For it matters not, how much we own;
The cars...the house...the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard...
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left.
Than can still be rearranged.
If we could just slow down long enough
To consider what's true and real,
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger,
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.
If we treat each other with respect,
And more often wear a smile...
Remembering that this special dash
Might only last a while.

*So, when your eulogys being read
With your life to rehash...
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent your dash?*

“ I miss my papal Sam every second of everyday. He was an amazing man who touched so many people. He will never be forgotten. I have so many fond memories of him over the past 23 years. His time here on Earth was too short. I was looking forward to making so many more memories of him and with him in the years to come.

I'll always love you papal.

Love,
