“ Sandy was the best cousin a girl could have. Her dad would pick me and mom up take us to their house for a visit Sandy talked to Me sat with me just like a sister would. Time has a way of separating us from people we love but it can't take the love from our hearts

“ Sandy was one of the sweetest ladies you could ever meet. She was funny and kind and she was always welcoming. She made the best homemade candies, put up with us hanging out and playing cards at her house and was always watching Walker Texas Ranger when I would come in the house. I'm so thankful to have known her. She will be missed. Praying for all of you. ❤️
