“ We are so sorry about Scott. We were remembering the first time he came to our house , I had made dinner and after we ate he said he would be coming back. That was the best compliment he could have given me. I loved Jane , Scott and all of you .

“ To my great nephew who loved the out doors cutting trees down and using a hatchet to cut trees down,my late husband got him into that.He fought hard but was time for the Lord to take him home. You will be missed especially that big smile.
