

Sill Johnson

September 9, 1920 - April 15, 2011

Sill Johnson age 90 of Long Fork Road passed away April 15, 2011 at the Pikeville Medical Center.

He was born in Floyd County on September 9, 1920 to the late Bub and Tania Johnson. He was a retired coal miner and of the Baptist Faith.

Other than his parents he was preceded in death by his wife; Tiny Tackett Johnson and one son; Ralph Johnson.

He is survived by two sons; Carl Johnson of Virgie, Harless Johnson of Michigan, one daughter; Zella Mae Hackett of Michigan, one sister; Effie Little of Weeksbury, six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday April 19, 2011 at the Hall & Jones Funeral Home with Old Regular Baptist Ministers officiating. Burial followed in the Frank Tackett Cemetery at Long Fork.

Cemetery Details

Frank Tackett Cemetery

Long Fork of Virgie, KY

Tribute Wall

“ Sill Johnson

October 09, 2023 at 03:57 AM

“ Sill Johnson

January 28, 2023 at 12:16 PM

“ One of the Greatest men I've ever known. Proud to be his grandson. He lived well, and finished well His life was saturated in the faith and knowledge of our Lord Jesus, and he demonstrated it. He worked Hard all of his life, and left a legacy for our family. I'm thankful that he left an amazing example of what a man should be, a hard worker, and a faithful servant of Jesus. You will be missed Papaw.

~Jon

Jon Hackett - September 26, 2011 at 11:26 PM