“ My name is Rachel Little -Bowie. (George Littles youngest daughter)Sybil was my Grandma and although I never truly had a chance to get to know her personally. I do have a few memories of her. To me she has always looked the same and always had a smile on her face from pictures that I have seen. I was glad to be able to have talked to her before she had passed.May she Rest in Peace.

“ Aunt Sybil was always smiling. She always reminded me of her sister, Aunt Lill. She and all her sisters and her brother Minus were wonderful and special people. They are all together at last. I am so proud to be a descendent of this family. My mom, Gutheria CaseboltJones and I send our sincere condolences to her family. She will be sorely missed.

“ Though I haven't seen Aunt Sybil in years she was always one of my favorites of my grandma Lexie's sisters. She was always so happy and kind. I remember being at her house on Turkey Pen and playing aggravation for hours. We will miss you, until we meet again

“ I enjoyed visiting my Grandmother for as long as I can remember. The first "trip" I took, after getting my license, was to see her. My parents were very nervous. I made great time (actually too good.) I called home as soon as I pulled in, against my Grandmothers wishes, and my Dad proceeded to jump completely down my throat thinking I sped the whole way, was unsafe and the list goes on. I learned, from that day on, to always! heed her advice. I never "disrespected" her again. I loved her so much, always will. I told her this past weekend I'd see her again, but that I still had some work to do. I hope that happens.
