“ Hey nana its Reese I wish you were still with us on earth, but now your in heaven and i hope your doing great in heaven. It was God's time to have you, our time was up, but boy oh boy do I want our time back so much. I try really hard to remember what you always told us, like no crying, and to scratch your tail. When I saw your sweet little soul and body at the funeral on Friday, October 6th I cried a lot because you weren't with us anymore, but now I know you're always with me. I love you so much nana banana. I miss you so much nana banana. Sincerely Reese.

I miss you more every day Mom. Life just isn't the same without you, it seems much more dull and dim without your bright, vibrant, contagious smile. I Love you always. Love Sis

“ John and I were very sorry to hear of Tammy's passing. We last saw her at another relative's funeral in Pike Co. a few years ago. She was my cousin by marriage to Woody. She was a beautiful person. We are very sorry for your loss. May family, friends, time, and good memories help you through this difficult time. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Tammy was dear to me, a true Christian lady. We had met the morning before her accident, talked & laughed together. She had a great sense of humor & she loved with all her heart. I will always remember Tammy as a treasured friend & a true inspiration. What joy she brought to my life! Gerri Kinder

“ Tammy was always sweet to me and my family when we came to visit at Grandpa and Mams house. She was never to busy to see us at the spur of a moment and never to busy to sit down and ask how everybody was. The last time I saw her was at a funeral of another loved one in Pikeville. She always seemed to stand up and be counted even when she did not feel well. I know she was proud of her family, and especially her grandchildren. They will always have a memory of their grandmother doing what she loved - being with them and helping them. Throughout life, we must remember those around us that carried the light. Tammy carried a very special light. and now she will be missed. I know I can think of her as being in heaven with my Dad and the rest of the family. One by one they are gathering there until I get there as well. Family is family, as she loved hers and they will carry her light into the world. I will always remember you Tammy and will always love you.
