“ We were so sad to hear the news about Timbo. He was a very special guy, he always had a smile on his face and kind words to say to all. He and Wayne played basketball over at the Blue Goose Gym for years and we all had a great time together. He will be missed by all. We will keep your family in our thoughts and prayers. May God bless and comfort each of you as only He can.

“ I will never forget this wonderful person, he was my dear friend and Co-Worker here at PMC maintenance Dept. Tim, Pam his Tims dear sweet mother became very good friends of mine a few years ago, and are still so very special to me. God has no doubt chosen him as a special angel to be in heaven. Will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

I love you Timbo & I will surely miss you my friend. I have so many memories of you & all of them are good ones. I can't remember a time that we ever disagreed on anything. I remember you teaching me how to drive & leaving your car at the school for me every day while you were working. You have always been there when I needed you the most & been more than a friend. You touched my very soul & anyone that knew you was a better person afterwards. I saw the love that your family has for one another & remember feeling that it's rare that a family gets along so good together. Then I realized that it's because you love one another so much. I love all of your family & will pray for them. My heart goes out to Pam, Barb, Jay, Stonie, Tammi, Phyllis & Tennille.
