“ I was honored to visit Vickie and Beau (my first cousin) in the last few years and I thoroughly enjoyed each second I was in their home. This was my first visit with Vickie, even though we had talked many times about quilting on the phone. We both have a love for quilting and family. She was a wonderful woman and was the most caring person I've met. The love she showed and expressed was so great...My prayers go out to Beau, their children, grand and great grandchildren and the in laws of the family. She will truly be missed. My prayers are with each of you. May you find peace in knowing that she is not suffering anymore Liz Maggard Austin
