“ I was very saddened to hear of this. It has been several years since I have seen Vincent but I have many memories of him helping me on and off the school bus when I was little and us just being kids. Rest in peace cousin.

“ he was a dear friend of mine and I will always have a huge place in my heart for him, his passing was a horrible nightmare for me, we had our ups and downs but I loved him more than anyone could ever imagine and seen a side of him that was so beautiful, he was always talking of his boys, how great they played basketball and Jason being in college because of it, and Jordan being such a natural at it also, guess they get that from him, he was definately proud of his pride and joys!!!!!! He's go on and on for hours over them and my prayers go out to them each and every day, and his family also , the Kelly's have always been great to me and I hate this for all of them, he can be at peace now and rest his tired soul, now he's finally with his little baby siblings that passed long ago and with his mom, who he adored as to be expected, so thats what helps me with the heartache, hes definately happy all the around and will never, ever be forgotton. So to you my sweet angel, like you always told me, now your just like "THE WIND!" It was something he used to say to me all the time and was very sweet and special to me. I love and miss you. Boobie Jane, this is the nickname he gave me so I will use it instead of mine, he never called me nothing but Boobie, so once again ...Rest in peace and I know your happy and in a better place, you taught me so much over the passing years and I will never,ever forget your beautiful memory and the ones I got to share being with you!!!! SO as you would say .MORE, cant wait to see you one day!!!!!!!
