“ I am very sorry for your loss of your precious loved one.

Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow, but remember me in every tomorrow.

Remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles, I've only gone to rest a little while.

Although my leaving causes pain and grief, my going has eased my hurt and given me relief.

So dry your eyes and remember me, not as I am now, but as I used to be.

Because, I will remember you all and look on with a smile.

Understand in your hearts, I've only gone to rest a little while.

As long as I have the love of each of you, I can live my life in the hearts of you all.

I am so sorry for your loss, I have thought of this family often over the years. Aunt Vi is rejoicing with angels.

Jesus wept, and in His weeping, He joined Himself forever to those who mourn.

He stands now throughout all time, this Jesus weeping, with His arms about the weeping ones:

*"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted."
He stands with the mourners, for His name is God-with-us.*

Jesus wept.

He loved them unto the end. John 13:01
