“ I am so saddened to hear that Whitney has passed. away way before she should have. I worked with her at Economy Drug and we became very close. She stayed with me once when the roads were flooded and we had a good time. She was always so happy and smiling and I think we spent more time talking than working. I pray that God will bless each of you with the strength to get through this horrible time and that the precious memories will hold you up. There is no doubt that sweet Whitney is right there with God! My sympathy to each of you and know that I love her!

“ I will always remember Whitney coming over to my mom and dad's house and grabbing a National Enquirer to find a picture of Michael Jackson. Whitney either found a picture or started a conversation about Michael and get daddy going. She always thought that was so funny, which it really was funny. I loved it too when her and her dad Curt would get ready to go to town or wherever and she would have the radio full blast, and the wipers going as fast as they could go. She was a very sweet and funny girl. She met her husband Jeff in my home on the computer, but was just as funny as ever. I am glad that Jeff and his kids got to know her like we did. She will be positively missed and still be loved by a lot of people. God bless Sharon and Curt in this hurtful time. R.I.P. Whitney. I love you and will always remember you and you will never be forgotten in my heart. Your loving aunt Paula Johnson.
